 DATE OF REVIEW 7/11/92

Date of transcription 7/12/72

Mr. JOHN MENDONCA, Supervisor, American Airlines Archives, 180 Jackson Street, Hempstead, New York, furnished the following flight coupons concerning individuals on American Airlines Flight 32 from Los Angeles, California to John F. Kennedy Airport, New York City, on September 4, 1971:

Passenger - Mr. E. HAMILTON
 Destination - Los Angeles to New York - Kennedy
 Date of Issue - September 4, 1971
 Flight - Number 32, 1:00 PM
 Serial Number - 001:12 4:177:961
 Ticket Number - Coupon 1 Ticket No. 001 124177961 5
 Fare - $189.81, Tax $15.19, Total $205.00 C

Passenger - G. LARIMER
 Destination - Los Angeles to New York - JFK cal
 Date of Issue - September 4, 1971
 Flight - Number 32, 1:00 PM
 Serial Number - 001:12 4:177:963
 Ticket Number - Coupon 1, Ticket No. 001 124177963 0
 Fare - $189.81, Tax $15.19, Total $205.00

Mr. MENDONCA stated that there appears in blue ink on LARIMER's ticket coupon the number 14A and 199. On HAMILTON's ticket coupon in blue ink appears the number 14B and 199. It is MENDONCA's opinion that the number 199 is the number assigned the ticket agent who sold the ticket and the number 14A and 14B are seat numbers.

In addition to the above two coupons, there appears an American Airlines flight coupon for a passenger named Mrs. J. HUNT. This coupon was issued on August 22, 1972 and was a round trip ticket from New York to Los Angeles and Return. According to Mr. MENDONCA, although the flight number is listed as OPEN, this flight was American Airlines Flight 32 from Los Angeles, California to JFK Airport, New York City. He came to this conclusion since this coupon was filed with others on this same flight. The serial number is shown as 001:22 2:657:318. It was Flight Coupon No. 2, Ticket Number 001 222657318 2. This coupon ticket when purchased was valid from August 29, 1971 to September 21, 1971.

Summary

Attached summarizes investigation conducted 7/13/72, of burglary of Democratic Party National Headquarters. u

(1) Finance Committee records examined and do not indicate information regarding the Kenneth Dahlberg $25,000 check. u

(2) Chief Judge John J. Sirica held Michael Douglas Caddy in contempt, ordered him remanded to custody of the Attorney General until he, Caddy, purges himself of the contempt charge or until grand jury is dismissed. This ruling and conviction were to be appealed late 7/13/72. * u

(3) Robert Houston, Security Officer, Committee to Re-elect the President, in reinterview recalled late March or early April, 1972, Lee Nunn, Vice Chairman, Finance Committee to Re-elect the President, instructed him to pick up package (which developed to be an envelope) from Raleigh, North Carolina, which he turned over to secretary of Nunn. Nunn does not recall specifics involving this envelope but of opinion it contained contribution checks. u

(4) Records of Robert Mullen Company show telephone call from Hunt's Office at 3:24 a.m., 6/17/72, which call may have been made by Robert Wait of General Foods. Wait to be interviewed as soon as possible. u
Extensive investigation continuing. u

DOCUMENTS WERE TECHNICALLY WELL PHOTOGRAPHED AND THAT THE NEGATIVES AND PRINTS WERE VERY LEGIBLE AND THIS MAN WHEN EXAMINING THE PRINTS APPEARED TO BE WELL PLEASED. RICHARDSON HAS DESCRIBED THIS MAN AS A WHITE MALE, CUBAN, THIRTYTHREE, FIVE FEET TEN TO ELEVEN INCHES, TALL, THIN WIRY BUILD, SANDY BROWN CURLY HAIR, VERY KINKY, WITH HEAVY LATIN ACCENT. RICHARDSON SELECTED A PHOTOGRAPH OF GEORGE GORDON LIDDY AND STATED THAT WHILE LIDDY WAS NOT THE UNSUB THAT THE SHAPE OF HIS FACE WAS SIMILAR TO LIDDY'S EXCEPT THAT IT WAS MUCH THINNER AND THAT THE HAIRLINE WAS SIMILAR TO LIDDY'S . EXTENSIVE EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY THIS UNSUB HAVE BEEN NEGATIVE TO DATE. IF THIS UNSUB WAS THE PHOTOGRAPHER HE WOULD HAVE PLAYED AN IMPORTANT PART IN THIS CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY AND IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT EVERY EFFORT BE MADE TO IDENTIFY, LOCATE AND INTERVIEW HIM. U

THE BUREAU IS REQUESTED TO SEND TO THE MIAMI OFFICE AN ARTIST FROM THE EXHIBITS SECTION TO WORK WITH WITNESS MICHAEL RICHARDSON TO PREPARE A SKETCH PORTRAIT OF THIS UNSUB PHOTOGRAPHER. THE SERVICES OF THIS ARTIST COULD ALSO BE MOST TIMELY USED IN CONNECTION WITH TWO OTHER MIAMI CASES, NAMELY, UNSUB; COMMUNITY NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, BAL HARBOUR, FLA., JULY TEN, END PAGE TWO

Our Miami Office has requested an artist from the Exhibits Section of the Administrative Division travel to Miami, Florida, to work with witness Michael Richardson of Rich Photos, Miami, to prepare a sketch portrait. Richardson is the photographer who on 6/10/72, processed film of documents some of which were headed "Chairman Democratic National Committee." Richardson has identified two of the three individuals who picked up the processed film as Bernard L. Barker and Frank Anthony Sturgis. Extensive efforts to identify the third individual have been unsuccessful and it is thought the use of an artist's conception would be the most direct and logical step to identify this unknown subject. u

It is also noted Miami specified two bank robbery cases in which an artist could be utilized. However, it is believed that the artist's time not be employed in preparing portraits in the bank robbery cases as the FBI facial identification catalog is available for such cases. u

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that an artist from the Exhibits Section travel to Miami to prepare a sketch portrait for use in identifying the unknown subject who accompanied Barker and Sturgis. u

ADDENDUM:

IT IS POINTED OUT TO THE BUREAU, THAT AFTER FIRST INTERVIEW OF STANS BY BUREAU AGENTS, THEY RETURNED TO A SECOND INTERVIEW AND AT THIS TIME STANS SUDDENLY REPORTED THAT SLOAN SUBMITTED AN ORAL RESIGNATION BACK IN JUNE SEVENTY TWO. THAT SLOAN WAS TO BE OFFICIALLY TERMINATED FROM THE COMMITTEE TODAY, JULY FOURTEEN SEVENTY TWO. ✓

BUREAU AGENTS IMMEDIATELY WERE DISPATCHED TO SLOAN'S RESIDENCE HOWEVER, HE COULD NOT BE LOCATED. NO ONE AT THE COMMITTEE CLAIMED TO KNOW WHERE HE WAS, INCLUDING STANS. ✓

KENNETH PARKINSON, THE ATTORNEY, SAID HE WOULD TRY AND LOCATE SLOAN AND SET UP INTERVIEW. ABOUT FIVE THIRTY TONIGHT, PARKINSON CALLED WFO AND SAID SLOAN HAD SECURED ATTORNEY NAMED S. TAPTICH. THAT TAPTICH WAS NOT GOING TO PERMIT BUREAU AGENTS TO INTERVIEW HIS CLIENT. THAT HE HAD ONLY BRIEF INTERVIEW WITH CLIENT AND DID NOT KNOW AT THIS TIME IF HE WOULD EVER PERMIT AGENTS TO TALK TO HIM. ^{Assistant U.S. Attorney} AUSA EARL SILBERT APPRISED OF ABOVE. ✓

IT APPEARS THAT PARKINSON OR STANS CONTACTED SLOAN AFTER THE FIRST STANS INTERVIEW AND PUT HIM ON NOTICE. THEREAFTER, IT WAS PARKINSON WHO NOTIFIED WFO OF TAPTICH'S INVOLVEMENT IN THE CASE. ✓

CONCERNING BARKER, HE TOOK THE STAND TO EXPLAIN THE ACQUISITION OF THE EIGHTY NINE THOUSAND IN HIS ACCOUNT. HE SAID ON CROSS EXAMINATION THAT HE RECEIVED FOUR CHECKS ON MEXICAN BANK FROM TWO MEN. HE TOOK THE FIFTH AMENDMENT WHEN ASKED TO IDENTIFY THEM. HE CLAIMED THAT HE NO LONGER HAD CONTROL OF THE MONEY THAT HE PUT INTO HIS ACCOUNT, BECAUSE HE TURNED THE CASH OVER TO TWO MEN APPARENTLY THE SAME TWO, SHORTLY AFTER THE CHECKS WERE CASHED. u

HE CLAIMED THAT THE MONEY HE RECEIVED FROM THE BANK, WAS IN ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR BILLS. HE CLARIFIED THAT BY STATING THAT ABOUT ONE THIRD TO ONE FOURTH WAS IN ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR BILLS. BARKER WAS THEREAFTER RELEASED ON BAIL. u

GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION
Summary

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Attached sets forth results of interview of Maurice Stans relative to the $25,000 check payable to Kenneth H. Dahlberg which was cashed by subject Bernard L. Barker in April, 1972, and the bank drafts payable to Manuel Ogarrio, Mexico City, which were deposited by Barker into his bank account in Miami. Barker received $89,000 in cash in May, 1972, when these bank drafts cleared.

Mr. Stans states that Hugh Walter Sloan, Jr., who had responsibility for supervision of funds received by the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President, is the individual to whom Stans gave the $25,000 check. Stans also stated he did not know how the Dahlberg check came into Barker's possession, nor could he explain how Barker obtained the Mexican bank drafts.

Stans stated Sloan submitted verbal resignation from the Finance Committee "prior to June 17, 1972," (date of the burglary) and Stans does not know his present whereabouts. Efforts are being made to locate and interview Hugh Walter Sloan, Jr., whose wife is indicated to be Assistant to the Social Secretary of the First Lady.

Enclosed for the Bureau is check number 131138, dated 4/10/72, payable to KENNETH H. DAHLBERG in the amount of $25,000. The described check is a cashier's check, drawn against account number 00-101-5 at the First Bank and Trust Company of Boca Raton, N.A., Boca Raton, Florida. u

According to KENNETH H. DAHLBERG, a Republican Party Fund Raiser, described check represents funds which he collected for the Republican Party Campaign Fund. DAHLBERG alleged that he furnished the check to MAURICE H. STANS, Chairman, Finance Committee, Committee to Re-Elect President (CRP), Washington, D.C. (WDC), on 4/11/72. STANS acknowledged receipt of check and indicated he furnished it to HUGH WALTER SLOAN, JR., Treasurer, Finance Committee, CRP, WDC. STANS indicated SLOAN had in turn furnished the check to GEORGE GORDAN LIDDY, Legal Counsel, Finance Committee, CRP. STANS indicated that the CRP later received the funds from that check. However, described check was deposited into subject BARKER's business account, Barker's Associates, Incorporated, at the Republican National Bank of Miami, Florida, on or about 4/19/72. The CRP cannot document receipt of either the check or funds from that check. u

REQUEST OF BUREAU

The FBI Laboratory is requested to compare the known handwriting of subject BERNARD L. BARKER with the "Notarization of BERNARD L. BARKER" which appears on the reverse side of the check. The Laboratory is requested to photograph the described check and expeditiously furnish WFO with an exact photographic duplicate of this check. u

The FBI Identification Division, Latent Fingerprint Section, is requested to examine the enclosed check for latent fingerprints. Any latent fingerprints of value developed should be compared against the known fingerprints of subjects previously identified in the captioned matter. Any latent fingerprints developed should also be compared against the fingerprints of following individuals: u

KENNETH H. DAHLBERG, white male, born 6/30/17 at St. Paul, Minnesota; MAURICE H. STANS, white male, born 3/22/08; HUGH WALTER SLOAN, JR., white male, born 11/1/40 at Princeton, New Jersey; GEORGE GORDON LIDDY, white male, born 11/30/30 at New York, New York; and BERNARD L. BARKER, white male, born WDC, Metropolitan Police Department Number 261422. u

It is requested that this latent fingerprint examination be conducted expeditiously inasmuch as the results of that examination will possibly substantiate movement of the described check from the CRP, WDC, to the BARKER account. This examination may also provide substantial evidence of the criminal complicity on the part of the above named individuals in this matter. u

The described check should be returned to WFO upon completion of this examination. u

BURGLARY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS,
WASHINGTON, D. C.
JUNE 17, 1972
INTERCEPTION OF COMMUNICATIONS

There follows a summary of pertinent investigation conducted of the captioned matter through July 20, 1972: u

Burglary and Arrest: At approximately 2:30 a.m., June 17, 1972, officers of the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) apprehended five individuals in an executive conference room of the Democratic Party National Headquarters located on the 6th floor of the Watergate Apartments, 2600 Virginia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. At the time of arrest the subjects had in their possession burglary tools, electronic and photographic equipment and were wearing surgical-type plastic gloves. u

Those arrested were identified as James Walter McCord, Jr., using the alias Edward Warren; Bernard L. Barker, using the alias Frank Carter; Eugenio Rolando Martinez y Greaga, using the alias Gane Valdes; Frank Anthony Sturgis, also known as Frank Anthony Fiorini, using the aliases Joseph Di Alberto and Edward Hamilton; and Virgilio Gonzales, using the alias Raoul Godoy. u

All subjects refused to be interviewed, refused to state for whom they were working, from where they came or their purpose for being in the building. They were all charged with Burglary, Section 1801, Title 22, District of Columbia Code, and were held on $50,000 bond except for McCord, a Rockville, Maryland, resident, whose bond was set at $30,000. All but Sturgis have since been released from District of Columbia Jail on bond. u

McCord, who appears to have been the leader of this group, retired from the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) on August 31, 1970, and at the time of his arrest he was Chief of Security for the Committee to Reelect the President. The remaining subjects are all known to have Cuban backgrounds.

[REDACTED]

B1

Involvement of Everette Howard Hunt, Jr.: After the arrests of the subjects in the Democratic Party National Headquarters, pursuant to an authorized search warrant, a search was made of the rooms rented by the subjects, using aliases, at the Water-gate Hotel. Among the items located was an envelope containing a check of E. Howard Hunt in the amount of $6.39 in payment for a bill from Lakewood Country Club, Rockville, Maryland, to Hunt in care of a publications firm in New York City. Hunt, when contacted, admitted the check was his but refused to discuss the matter before consulting his attorney. Also located in the subjects' rooms were personal telephone directories which contained names, telephone numbers and addresses of numerous persons in Miami, New York and Washington, D. C. One of the names contained in the telephone book of subject Martinez is "Hunt (W. House)," together with the telephone number of Hunt's office at the White House. W

R1

Investigation developed that Hunt was employed by the CIA from [REDACTED] became employed by Robert R. Mullen Company, 1700 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., a public relations and fund-raising organization. Beginning July 6, 1971, Hunt was employed on a consultant basis by the White House staff, working with Mr. David R. Young and Mr. Charles W. Colson. He is reported to have been used as a consultant on declassification of the Pentagon Papers. His services were last utilized in this capacity on March 29, 1972. Information was developed that on the recommendation of a member of Mr. Colson's staff, Hunt was terminated as a consultant effective April 1, 1972, and was to be hired immediately thereafter by "1701" (1701 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., is the address of the Committee to Reelect the President).

Investigation developed that between January 1, 1972, and June 20, 1972, Hunt was in frequent and regular contact with the office and residence of Bernard L. Barker, Miami, Florida. Investigation further developed that Hunt, frequently utilizing the alias Ed J. Hamilton, together with George Gordon Liddy, who frequently used the alias George Leonard or G. Leonard, traveled extensively around the United States [REDACTED] for the purpose of setting up a security organization for the Republican Party dealing with "political espionage." B1

Involvement of Michael Douglas Caddy: Michael Douglas Caddy, also known as Douglas Caddy, is an Attorney at Law having offices at 1250 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., and is associated with the law firm Gall, Lane, Powell, and Kilcullen. Caddy gratuitously appeared at the Metropolitan Police Department where subjects were taken after being arrested and claimed to represent them. Prior to Caddy's arrival, none of the subjects made any phone calls which might have precipitated his appearance. Investigation disclosed telephone calls were made during the early morning hours of June 17, 1972, from the telephone of Everett Howard Hunt at the Robert R. Mullen and Company to the Barker residence in Miami, Florida, and from Barker's residence to the residence of Caddy. u

Upon Caddy's appearance before the Federal grand jury at Washington, D. C., he was held in contempt of court for failing to answer questions on the basis he had an attorney-client relationship with Hunt. Contempt action was upheld by the U. S. Court of Appeals on July 19, 1972. Caddy subsequently testified he received a telephone call from Hunt at around 3:00 a.m., on June 17, 1972. u

Involvement of George Gordon Liddy: As is set forth elsewhere in this Memorandum, Everett Howard Hunt traveled extensively [REDACTED]

for the Republican Party in late 1971 and early 1972. B1
Investigation has developed that Liddy accompanied Hunt on a number of these trips. Liddy, a former FBI Agent, was employed from April, 1969, to July, 1971, by the U. S. Treasury Department in the office of Law Enforcement. When he resigned from the Treasury Department, Liddy accepted a position on the White House staff and in December, 1971, resigned therefrom to work for the Committee for the Re-election of the President. (

JAMES WALTER MCCORD, JR.

The telephone notebook of Martinez which was recovered when the rooms of the subjects were searched at the Watergate Hotel contained a notation "George" with the telephone number of 202-333-6575. The telephone notebook of Bernard L. Barker, located in the above mentioned search, contained a notation "George" with the telephone number WDC 333-0362. Investigation developed that both of these numbers were at the office of the Committee for the Reelection of the President, 1701 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. u

It is noted that Mr. Maurice Stans, Chairman of the Finance Committee for the Committee to Reelect the President, advised that the $25,000 cashier's check payable to Kenneth H. Dahlberg, dated April 10, 1972, was turned over to Liddy, counsel for the Finance Committee, for a legal opinion as to how it would be best to handle the receipt and recording of this check as the funds allegedly had been contributed prior to April 7, 1972, although the check was dated April 10, 1972, after the effective date of new disclosure and reporting law. The check was cashed by subject Bernard L. Barker at his bank in Miami, Florida, but Mr. Stans had no idea how Barker obtained the check. (See write-up elsewhere in this memorandum concerning the tracing of funds and the write-up concerning the Howard Johnson Motel wherein it is shown that Liddy was observed giving a large sum of money in cash to subject McCord.) Liddy is reported to have been discharged by the Committee to Reelect the President because Liddy declined to be interviewed by FBI Agents concerning this case. u

Howard Johnson Motel Lookout: Investigation developed that James Walter McCord, Jr., rented Room 419 at the Howard Johnson Motel, 2601 Virginia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., from May 5, 1972, to May 28, 1972, and Room 723 from May 29, 1972, until June 17, 1972. Room 723 was found vacant by motel employees the evening of June 17, 1972. This motel is located directly across the street from the Watergate Apartments and Room 723 faces the suite occupied by the Democratic Party National Headquarters at the Watergate Apartments. u

Alfred Carleton Baldwin, III, a former FBI Agent, has been identified as the individual who occupied Rooms 419 and 723 from about May 11, 1972, to June 17, 1972. Baldwin

JAMES WALTER McCORD, JR.

advised that during a period of this time he monitored, through the use of electronic equipment set up by McCord, telephone conversations of Spencer Oliver, a Democratic Party official. McCord told Baldwin that four extensions of Oliver's telephone located at the Democratic Party National Headquarters, were being monitored. u

35c Baldwin stated that while he was occupying Room 723 on one occasion, the specific date which he cannot determine, George Gordon Liddy and Everette Howard Hunt came to the room and had a conversation with McCord. On this occasion Liddy took an envelope from his suit jacket and counted out about $1,000.00 to $1,800.00 in $100 bills, which he gave to McCord. McCord pocketed the money and all three individuals left the room. u

On the evening of June 16, 1972, McCord came to Room 723 and requested Baldwin to purchase six batteries and some "speaker wire." Baldwin obtained the batteries but did not buy the wire and McCord subsequently departed to locate some wire. He returned about 11:00 p.m. to 11:30 p.m., carrying the wire and various other electronic components appearing to have come from Lafayette Radio. u

About 12:00 a.m. to 12:30 a.m., June 17, 1972, McCord received a telephone call and told Baldwin that "we're going across the street," pointing to the Democratic Headquarters. McCord told Baldwin to watch and if anything unusual occurred to contact McCord by walkie-talkie. u

About 2:15 a.m., June 17, 1972, Baldwin noticed lights going on in the Watergate Apartments and subsequently police beginning to arrive. He attempted to utilize the walkie-talkie to alert McCord and received a response in a whisper, "We hear you, they got us." About this time Baldwin noticed two men leaving the alley on the east side of the Watergate and identified them as Hunt and Liddy. Hunt came to Room 723 and used the phone to contact an attorney. Hunt told Baldwin to telephone Mrs. McCord and advise her that her husband had been arrested. He also told Baldwin to pack up the electronic gear and deliver it to Mrs. McCord in McCord's panel truck which was parked in the basement of the Howard Johnson Motel. He further told Baldwin to pack up his own belongings and go home. Baldwin

delivered the electronic equipment together with McCord's wallet which had been left in the room to Mrs. McCord at about 4:00 a.m., June 17, 1972. She drove him back to his own car and he thereupon drove to his home in Connecticut. u

Travel Miami - Washington, D. C.:

Travel June 16, 1972

Investigation at Tamiami Tours, Miami, Florida, identified subjects Bernard L. Barker and Eugenio R. Martinez as individuals who on June 12, 1972, purchased four round trip tickets from Miami to Washington, D. C., on Eastern Airlines flight 199 for June 16, 1972. These tickets, which were found on the subjects at the time of their arrest, were purchased in the names of G. Valdes (alias of subject Eugenio Martinez), F. Carter (alias of subject Bernard L. Barker), J. Di Alberto (alias of subject Frank Florini) and R. Godoy (alias of subject Virgilio Gonzales). u

At time of their arrest June 17, 1972, the subjects, except for McCord were determined to be registered at the Watergate Hotel, Washington, D. C., under the aliases shown on the foregoing airline tickets. u

Travel May 22-30, 1972

Subject Eugene Martinez has been identified as the individual who on May 17, 1972, bought six one-way tickets at Tamiami Tours for travel from Miami to Washington, D. C., on National Airlines flight 100 departing May 22, 1972. These tickets were purchased by Martinez in the names of Frank Carter (alias of Barker), J. Granada (believed to be Reinaldo Pico, presently in South America on business), Joseph Di Alberti (alias of Florini), Raoul Godoy (alias of Gonzales), Jose Piedra (alias of Felipe De Diego) and G. Valdes (alias of Martinez). u

Investigation has determined that the foregoing individuals under the aliases shown were registered at the Hamilton Hotel, Washington, D. C., from May 22, 1972, to May 26, 1972, at which time they moved to the Watergate Hotel, Washington, D. C., where they stayed until May 30, 1972. u

JAMES WALTER MCCORD, JR.

Investigation further discloses these individuals were joined at the Watergate Hotel by two additional persons using the names of George Leonard (believed to be George Gordon Liddy) from Kansas City, Kansas, and Edward Warren (believed to be Everett Howard Hunt) from New York City. Warren paid the Watergate Hotel bill for these individuals, totaling a little over $1,000 in cash. u

Felipe De Diego, an employee of Barker's real estate firm, has been interviewed and admits being with the subjects during the period May 22-30, 1972, in Washington, D. C. According to De Diego, he was requested by Barker to make this trip but he does not know the purpose of the trip and during his stay in Washington, D. C., the group appeared to be waiting to hear from some unidentified individual. u

It is noted that on May 28, 1972, there was a reported break-in of the Democratic Party National Headquarters, Watergate Apartments, Washington, D. C. u

In addition to the foregoing the Security Guard at the Watergate Apartments reported that sometime over the Memorial Day week end (he cannot pin this down any closer) papers were found stuffed in the doorway of the 6th floor stairwell in an apparent attempt to keep the door from working. Democratic Party National Headquarters is located on the 6th floor of the Watergate Apartments. u

Flowing of Funds: There follows a summary of investigation to trace funds that may have been used to finance the operation involving the burglary of the Democratic National Headquarters on June 17, 1972. u

Bank Account of Bernard L. Barker: Barker as Barker Associates, a real estate firm, maintains an account at the Republic National Bank of Miami. A review of the records of this account shows that on April 21, 1972, Barker presented a cashier's check dated April 10, 1972, payable to Kenneth Dahlberg, drawn on the First Bank and Trust Company of Boca Raton, Florida, and endorsed by Dahlberg. Upon checking with the latter bank and determining that the cashier's check was "as good as gold" $25,000 was given in cash by the Republic National Bank. u

Barker on April 21, 1972, also presented to the

JAMES WALTER MC CORD, JR.

Republic National Bank four checks dated April 4, 1972, totaling $89,000, drawn on the Banco Internacional, Mexico City, payable to Manuel Ogarrio and endorsed by Ogarrio. Since these checks were payable to a third party, Barker was told he would have to deposit these checks and wait for them to clear before he could receive any money for them. On May 8, 1972, Barker was given $89,000 in cash by the Republic National Bank for the foregoing checks. u

Bernard L. Barker at the time of his release on $40,000 bond on July 14, 1972, said he received the four checks totaling $89,000 from two men and turned the money over to them. He took the 5th Amendment when asked to identify these individuals. u

Kenneth Dahlberg - $25,000 Cashier's Check: Kenneth Dahlberg is a prominent industrialist and Regional Chairman of the Finance Committee to Reelect the President, who lives in Minneapolis and winters in Boca Raton, Florida. After several refusals to be interviewed, Dahlberg on July 6, 1972, consented to be interviewed regarding the foregoing $25,000 cashier's check cashed by subject Barker. Dahlberg stated this check represented cash contributions he had obtained while in Boca Raton and he furnished this check to Maurice H. Stans, Chairman, Finance Committee to Reelect the President on April 11, 1972, in Washington, D. C. According to Dahlberg he has no knowledge of what happened to this check after he surrendered it to Stans. Dahlberg stated he was not acquainted with subject Barker or any of the other subjects involved in this matter. It is to be noted that during the period June 23, 1972, to June 26, 1972, when we were endeavoring to interview Dahlberg concerning this check, he made three telephone calls to Washington, D. C., to the Committee to Reelect the President. u

$89,000 Banco Internacional Checks: On July 10, 1972, Manuel Ogarrio, an attorney, Mexico City, advised that he purchased the four foregoing bank drafts totaling $89,000, drawn on the Banco Internacional as a favor to an American client of twenty years standing whom he refused to identify other than as a reliable American company with operations in Mexico. According to Ogarrio his client gave him a check for $100,000 which he converted into the foregoing four bank drafts and cash. He signed the checks making them negotiable and turned them and the remaining $11,000 cash over to his client. He received no

commission for doing this and has no knowledge as to how Barker came into possession of these checks. According to Ogarrio he believed the purpose of the transaction was to convey money to the Republican Party anonymously. On July 11, 1972, Ogarrio in a reinterview stated that he learned on July 10, 1972, that the foregoing endorsed bank drafts were forwarded to Maurice Stans of the Republican Party. u

Bank Accounts of James Walter McCord: McCord maintains a personal checking account and a business account in the name of McCord Associates at the Maryland National Bank, College Park, Maryland. The records of these accounts show he made a $10,000 cash deposit to his personal account on April 12, 1972; a $10,000 cash deposit to his business account on May 31, 1972; and a $10,000 cash deposit to his business account on June 12, 1972. u

In addition, McCord on behalf of the Committee to Reelect the President on February 22, 1972, opened an account in the name of Dedicated Friends of a Better America, with McCord as Chairman, at the National Savings and Trust Company, Washington, D. C. This account was closed April 17, 1972, and during the period it was opened over $90,000 passed through this account. u

Interview With Maurice Stans: Maurice Stans, Chairman, Finance Committee to Reelect the President, was interviewed July 14, 1972, at which time he advised that a $25,000 cashier's check was given to him by Kenneth Dahlberg in Washington, D. C., on April 11, 1972. Stans in turn gave this check to Hugh Walter Sloan, Jr., who at the time was responsible for the supervision of funds received by the Finance Committee. According to Stans, Sloan then gave this check to George Gordon Liddy who was acting as legal counsel to the Finance Committee for a determination as to how this check should be handled since it was dated April 10, 1972, but the funds which it represented had been contributed prior to April 7, 1972, the effective date of the new Federal Disclosure Act. Sloan subsequently advised Stans the money from the check had been received by the Committee. Stans could furnish no explanation as to how Barker came to be in possession of Dahlberg's $25,000 cashier's check. u

Stans advised that on April 6, 1972, he learned from Sloan that the Committee to Reelect the President had received $100,000 in the form of bank drafts on Mexican banks. Stans, when informed the Mexican drafts totaled $89,000 replied that Sloan had told him $100,000 in Mexican bank drafts had been received and this is all he knew about the matter. Stans could offer no explanation as to how these bank drafts came into Barker's possession nor was he aware of the identity of the American firm which allegedly made this contribution. u

When Stans was requested to make Sloan available for immediate interview, he advised that Sloan had resigned two weeks ago. Sloan was subsequently contacted on July 17, 1972, and he declined to be interviewed until he had a chance to discuss this matter with his attorney. u

Interviews at White House: Everette Howard Hunt and George Gordon Liddy were known to have been employed at the White House as consultants and White House telephone numbers used by these individuals were found in subjects' possession. Accordingly, various White House staff members acquainted with Hunt and Liddy during their White House assignment were interviewed. u

At the request of Mr. John W. Dean, Legal Counsel to the President, he, Dean, sat in on all interviews conducted with White House personnel. Those interviewed included Charles W. Colson, David R. Young, Alfred Wong, Bruce Kehrli, Fred Fielding and Kathleen Chnow. All stated they were unable to furnish any information concerning Hunt's or Liddy's involvement in these matters involving the burglary of the Democratic National Committee Headquarters. u

According to Mr. David R. Young, both Hunt and Liddy worked for him on a project to classify and declassify Government documents. u

It was determined from Mr. John Dean that the personal effects of Everette Howard Hunt had been removed on June 20, 1972, from Hunt's office in the Executive Office Building and brought to his, Dean's, office. This material which was turned over to the FBI on June 27, 1972, included ancillary equipment for the transceivers and other equipment identical to items known to have been purchased by James Walter McCord, Jr. u

Interviews at Committee to Reelect the President: Numerous interviews were conducted with personnel employed at the Committee to Reelect the President and in each interview at the Committee's insistence an attorney of the Committee was present. Several persons subsequent to interviews conducted at the Committee contacted the FBI Washington Field Office and requested to be further interviewed away from Committee headquarters and without the knowledge of Committee officials. These persons advised that the presence of the attorney during the interview prevented them from being completely candid. These sources further advised that all Committee people subpoenaed before the Federal Grand Jury were subsequently debriefed by Committee attorneys as to what occurred at the Federal Grand Jury hearing. u

One of the foregoing persons confidentially advised that Hugh Walter Sloan, Jr., who supervises Committee finances reportedly maintains a brief case full of money in his office safe. During the period February - April, 1972, according to this source Sloan allegedly disbursed large sums to various Committee officials for unknown reasons such as $50,000 to Jeb Magruder, $100,000 to Herbert L. Porter and $89,000 to George Gordon Liddy. u

Another cooperative source at the Committee advised confidentially that Committee officials during interviews were sending FBI Agents on fishing expeditions to keep them from getting to the truth. This source advised that Mrs. McCord following her husband's arrest on June 17, 1972, told Committee official Robert Odle words to the effect "Well, it looks like your project failed." This source identified Odle as one of the individuals who was less than candid in his interview with FBI Agents. u

Photographs of Democratic Party Correspondence: On June 22, 1972, Michael Richardson, Rich Photos, 1600 W. Flagler Street, Miami, Florida, advised that about noon, Saturday, June 10, 1972, one white male whom he tentatively identified from a photograph as Bernard Barker, came to this store which is located in a heavily populated Cuban area. This individual presented two rolls of exposed Kodak tri-X black and white 35 millimeter film on which he said documents had been photographed. He requested immediate development and printing of 8 by 10 prints. Richardson did a rush job and determined there were four exposed document negatives on one roll and 34 document negatives on the other roll for a total of 38 exposed negatives. Richardson made one 7 by 10 print of each of the 38 negatives. u

Richardson said most of the documents had an emblem and were headed "Chairman Democratic National Committee." The documents photographed appeared to have been on onion skin paper and most were typed. A few consisted of handwritten notes. On at least one of the documents, there was the signature "Dick." Several letters had the handwritten name of Lawrence O'Brien. One or more of the documents concerned a resume of an unrecalled woman who headed a local campaign for Senator Hubert Humphrey. Richardson said all documents were photographed with a shag carpet background and hands covered with clear-type gloves held down each corner of each document. u

Richardson made no written record of the transactions and maintained no copy of the negatives or prints. Richardson tentatively identified one of the two men who accompanied Barker as being Fiorini, but was unable to identify the third man. u

Investigation at the Howard Johnson Motel, 2601 Virginia Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., determined the carpet utilized by the motel is similar to that noticed in the photographs by Richardson. u

Direction of Investigation: Investigation is being directed to developing evidence of an Interception of Communications violation against not only the subjects, but all those who may have assisted them such as who recruited them, who financed the operation, who planned the operation, etc. Section 2511, Title 18, U. S. Code, makes it a violation for anyone to willfully intercept, endeavor to intercept or procure any other person to intercept or endeavor to intercept any wire or oral communication. It is also a violation of that Section for anyone to willfully use, endeavor to use or procure any other person to use or endeavor to use any electronic, mechanical or other device to intercept any oral communication. The possession of any electronic, mechanical or other device which is primarily useful for surreptitious interception of wire or oral communications is a violation of Section 2512, Title 18, U. S. Code, provided the device or any component thereof has been sent through the mail or transported in interstate or foreign commerce. Section 371, Title 18, U. S. Code, the general Conspiracy Statute, makes it an offense if two or more persons conspire to commit any offense against the United States.

BENJAMIN ROGER PEEK, President, Integrated Systems Technology, 2701 National Drive, advised his company manufactures electronic equipment, primarily a portable radio telephone, which is housed in an attache case and is completely compatible with Bell Telephone Systems throughout the country. His only other electronic product at present is a power amplifier unit used to boost the power of handy talkie type two way radio transmitter to between 35 and 40 watts of FM power. u

In January, 1972, he went to Washington, D. C. to promote the sale of the portable telephone to government agencies. He contacted LYMAN HALEY, Inter-Governmental Radio Advisory Committee (IRAC). He asked HALEY for referrals to prospective customers and among other government officials he was referred to JAMES MC CORD, Security Advisor to the Chairman of the Committee for Re-Election of the President. u

PEEK called MC CORD on January 26, 1972, and went to his office at the Committee Headquarters in Washington, D. C. that same day. PEEK discussed his portable radio telephone with MC CORD and pointed out its potential value during the upcoming presidential campaign. MC CORD indicated the committee had three or four vehicles which might need a radio telephone, but any decision for purchase of the units would be up to the committee. u

On January 27, 1972, PEEK went to MC CORD's office in Rockville, Maryland, and left one of the portable radio telephones with MC COARD for testing and demonstration to JOHN MITCHELL and members of the committee. u

ROBERT DENHARDT, distributor of PEEK's products in the Washington, D. C. area, accompanied PEEK to MC CORD's office. DENHARDT picked up the unit from MC CORD a few days later and returned it to PEEK. PEEK saw MC CORD only on the two occasions and has not been in contact with him since January 27, 1972. u

THOMAS J. HOUSER, Chairman, Illinois Nixon Committee, was interviewed at 110 South Dearborn, Chicago. He furnished the following information: u

He recalled receiving a telephone call at his residence, 219 North Hickory, Arlington Heights, Illinois, about May 9, 1972, from a man who identified himself as JAMES MC CORD. HOUSER does not know MC CORD personally and has never met him. MC CORD told HOUSER he was in charge of security for the Committee to Re-Elect the President and was aware of the demonstrations that took place at Nixon Headquarters in Chicago on May 9, 1972. MC CORD desired to know if HOUSER needed any assistance to keep the office space secure. HOUSER told him he did not. HOUSER cannot recall if this phone call was the first time MC CORD had spoken to him or whether MC CORD had called him earlier at the office. u

HOUSER cannot with certainty recall receiving any other telephone communications from MC CORD or anyone associated with MC CORD. However, HOUSER did learn from his secretary that MC CORD called the office on Wednesday, May 10, 1972. MC CORD did not speak to anyone other than the secretary on that occasion. u

HOUSER stated he has traveled to Washington, D.C. about five times in 1972. He could not remember ever meeting MC CORD or any other person working in a security capacity for the Committee to Re-Elect the President. HOUSER does not know anyone named BERNARD BARKER, FRANK CARTER, VIRGILIO GONZALES, RAOUL GODOY, EUGENIO MARTINEZ, GENE VALDES, ANGELO, FRANK or FRED PIORINI, ATTILLA STURGIS, EDWARD HAMILTON, JOSEPH D'ALBERTO, GEORGE LEONARD, EDWARD WARREN, PAUL JOSE PIEDRA or JOE GRANADA. u

On the five or so occasions he has traveled to Washington, D.C. this year, HOUSER has usually returned the same day to Chicago. He remembers staying overnight only once, but cannot recall the date. He is certain it was not in May or June. He believes he stayed at the Sheraton Hotel on 16th Street. u

CHRISTINE NYKIEL, Secretary to THOMAS HOUSER, furnished the following information:

On Wednesday, May 10, 1972, she received a telephone call from a man who identified himself as JAMES MC CORD. He indicated he was in charge of security for the Committee to Re-Elect the President and that he had heard about demonstrations being staged at the Nixon Campaign Headquarters in Chicago. He desired to know what was happening and if any additional security would be needed to protect the Chicago headquarters. NYKIEL told him the situation was being handled adequately by the Chicago Police Department. The conversation lasted only a few minutes, and to NYKIEL's knowledge, originated from Washington, D.C. She believes Mr. HOUSER was not in the office at the time of the call. She cannot remember receiving any other telephone calls from MC CORD.

LOUIS J. RIEGER, Manager, Organizational Planning Department, Quaker Oats Company, Chicago, Illinois, furnished the following information:

Prior to his employment with Quaker Oats Company (QOC) he was employed by McKinsey and Company, a Washington, D.C. management consultant firm. u

In October, 1971, he was assigned with others by McKinsey to develop program budgets for the Republican National Committee (RNC) for the year 1972. His particular duty was to develop the budget for the RNC security program. Consequently, he was introduced to JAMES WALTER MC CORD, who was in charge of security for both RNC and the Committee to Re-Elect the President (CREP). MC CORD and RIEGER had several discussions about the security program. These were general in nature and concerned primarily with the expenses involved in protecting and guarding RNC headquarters at the Eisenhower Center, 301 C Street, S.E. in Washington. MC CORD mentioned installing alarm systems, the hiring of guards and the storage and destruction of confidential materials. There was no talk of any wiretapping or "bugging" of other offices or persons. MC CORD did mention he would have to guard against the possibility of RNC headquarters ever being bugged. u

RIEGER resigned from Mc Kinsey December 21, 1971, and joined QOC. In February, 1972, his department did a study to determine if outside consultants were needed for advice on security problems at QOC. RIEGER contacted various security agencies to obtain information about their business operations. One of the agencies he contacted was MC CORD and Associates. MC CORD indicated an interest in doing any security work necessary for QOC and said he would send RIEGER some informational material. MC CORD never sent the material. RIEGER recalled that he telephoned MC CORD at the CREP Office at 1701 Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington to make this initial inquiry on behalf of QOC. Sometime in March, 1972, RIEGER again called MC CORD at the CREP Offices. MC CORD mentioned he was coming to Chicago soon and would meet then with RIEGER. Shortly after this conversation, MC CORD telephoned

E. CLAYTON GENGRAS, Chairman of the Board and President of the Security Insurance Group, 1000 Asylum Avenue, Hartford, Connecticut, was interviewed at his office on June 26, 1972. GENGRAS is also President of Metropolitan Fire Assurance Company of New York, with offices at the same address; President of the Connecticut Bus Company, 53 Vernon Street, Hartford, and President of Adley Express, Orange, Connecticut. u

GENGRAS stated he was acquainted with ALFRED CARLTON BALDWIN as the latter had worked in the Security Department at Adley Express, Orange, Connecticut, from November 6, 1967, to July 11, 1969, at a salary of $12,000 per year. BALDWIN's application for employment is on file at the Adley Office in Orange, Connecticut, but GENGRAS learned over the telephone that BALDWIN on the application stated he was employed as an SA in the FBI from June, 1965, to October, 1966, and prior thereto was in the United States Marine Corps. After BALDWIN left Adley, the company received no inquiries from any prospective employer. u

GENGRAS recalled that sometime in November, 1971, he received a telephone call from some person in the Aetna Life and Casualty Company, Hartford, regarding BALDWIN, but GENGRAS did not recommend BALDWIN as he considered the latter to be "a nut." u

GENGRAS volunteered that BALDWIN had been married to a very fine girl and they had one or more children. He understood they were divorced, but never learned the reason for same. He stated that while BALDWIN was working for Adley Express, he put on a lot of weight and it appeared BALDWIN was drinking pretty heavily. He has not seen BALDWIN since the latter left Adley Express in July, 1969. He did not believe BALDWIN was related to RAYMOND E. BALDWIN, former Governor of Connecticut, but was not certain on this point. u

According to DANTSCHER, WALTER WALSH had indicated to him that BALDWIN was employed as a body guard for MARTHA MITCHELL, the wife of the former United States Attorney General JOHN MITCHELL. DANTSCHER said to his recollection WALSH told him this sometime prior to the time Alabama Governor GEORGE WALLACE was shot in Maryland. DANTSCHER stated that to the best of his recollection BALDWIN did not discuss where he was living or what type of work he was engaged in at the social function held on May 26, 1972. He further stated he has not heard from BALDWIN or had any contact with him since that date. DANTSCHER also recalled that during the evening of June 19, 1972, he was in telephone contact with WALTER WALSH, who indicated that BALDWIN was either then in the New Haven, Connecticut, area, or was coming to New Haven in the near future. SHANNON advised that he told him about a job at Aetna Insurance Company in Hartford, however, nothing came of this. u

SHANNON advised that about six to eight months ago, he heard that a Wackenhut Organization was looking for a man to take over its Hartford Office. He stated he advised BALDWIN of this job opportunity and BALDWIN followed it up and was interviewed in Miami at the Wackenhut Headquarters. He stated that BALDWIN told him about this at a Connecticut Ex-FBI agent meeting in Connecticut, at that time, and he told him he was waiting to see if he would be hired. u

SHANNON advised that he did not hear from BALDWIN again until the morning of June 19, 1972, when BALDWIN called him at the Schick Safety Razor plant in Milford and told him that somebody else had obtained the Wackenhut job. u

SHANNON stated that when he asked BALDWIN what he was doing, BALDWIN told him he had been working on security for the group in Washington who were working for the re-election of the President. BALDWIN said that his headquarters in Washington, D. C. was in the building where JOHN MITCHELL had his office. SHANNON advised that he knew that MITCHELL was associated with the law firm of Mudge-Rose-Guthrie and Alexander, President NIXON's old law firm. He also knew that MITCHELL was the head of a Committee for the re-election of the President, which committee has an office in the same building as the law firm in Washington, D. C. u

SHANNON advised that BALDWIN told him he was calling him because things had happened in Washington, over the weekend. BALDWIN then referred him to a story in the New York Times about the arrest of a group who had broken into the Democratic National Headquarters. He stated that BALDWIN mentioned JAMES MC CORD as one of the men who had been arrested and told him that MC CORD was an ex-FBI agent. BALDWIN said he was calling him because he had been told to leave Washington, D. C. and to go home over the weekend. BALDWIN said he was calling SHANNON because someone in Washington, D. C. with the committee for the re-election of the President, name not mentioned, had told him he could probably get back to work on security for the re-election of the President if he knew someone who might be doing some sort of security work for the re-election of the President in this election. u

SHANNON advised that BALDWIN was aware that SHANNON had been active in 1968 with LOU NICHOLS, former FBI agent, Assistant Director, in regard to security at the Ballot Boxes. SHANNON stated that in 1968 elections, he, SHANNON, was in charge of all Ballot security in the State of New Jersey. He advised that this was publicized in an article in the 1969 August issue of Readers Digest, written by LOU NICHOLS after the 1968 elections. SHANNON advised that he told BALDWIN he was very busy in his law practice with Warner-Lambert and the Schick Safety Razor Company and would not have time to engage in this type of political activity because of the demands of his corporate legal work, as counsel to the Schick Safety Razor Company, Division of Warner-Lambert and as an attorney for the firm of Warner-Lambert. u

SHANNON further advised that when he asked BALDWIN what he was doing with the committee for the re-election of the President, BALDWIN told him that he had been assigned to travel with and provide security for MARTHA MITCHELL. BALDWIN referred to her as a very fine person with whom he was impressed. u

SHANNON stated that BALDWIN also told him he got this job through ex-FBI agents. He stated that the Ex-Agents Society has offices at the Statler Hilton Hotel on 33rd Street, in New York City. He stated that Miss FRANCES KOEHOE is the Executive Secretary and would know whether BALDWIN was officially placed through the Society. u

At approximately 3:30 PM, Attorney ROBERT MIRTO telephoned the New Haven Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation. u

Mr. MIRTO was reminded that on June 21, 1972, Attorney JOHN CASSIDENTO, representing ALFRED C. BALDWIN, III, stated that BALDWIN had been advised to make no statement to Agents of the FBI. He further stated at that time, however, that he did not want to preclude the possibility of a statement by BALDWIN in the future. u

Mr. MIRTO was asked whether BALDWIN would reconsider an interview with FBI Agents at the present time. MIRTO replied that BALDWIN's position remains the same as that stated by Attorney CASSIDENTO. According to Mr. MIRTO, BALDWIN will not make a statement to representatives of the FBI; however, he does not want to preclude the possibility of making a statement in the future. Mr. MIRTO explained that BALDWIN "doesn't want to make a statement now since he doesn't want to get involved in something he isn't involved in." u

Mr. MIRTO indicated that BALDWIN and his counsel are continuing to discuss BALDWIN's situation on a daily basis and that they will keep in touch with the New Haven Office, FBI. u

ANDY J. KARASCI, Treasurer, Telanserphone, Incorporated, 260 Madison Avenue, New York City (NYC), 627-7511 furnished the following information:

KARASCI advised that Telanserphone has been in operation for approximately 40 years. One branch or one service of Telanserphone had been located at 143 West 73rd Street, NYC since approximately 1966. The service which was formerly at 143 West 73rd Street was moved approximately two years ago to 130 West 72nd Street, NYC. This move was due to the renovation of the building in transforming it into apartments. The service at 143 West 73rd Street had approximately 1,000 customers and some of these customers are still clients at the new address. u

At this time it is to be noted the records of Telanserphone for the addresses of 143 West 73rd Street and 130 West 72nd Street were reviewed by KARASCI and Special Agent (SA) ROBERT A. BUCHKO. The records were manually kept from November, 1966 to 1971. These records were checked alphabetically and did not reflect any names of the subjects, businesses, or other individuals related to this particular case. From 1971 through the present date, the Telanserphone records are computerized and a review of these records were also negative in regards to the individuals and the Ameritas Corporation. u

Telanserphone clients upon request are thoroughly checked by the Telanserphone Record Department with the New York Telephone Company. At this time the number for which these clients are requesting service must be synonymous in regards to the client's name, address, and telephone number of the New York Telephone Company records. This is to prevent someone from using an alias or fictitious address in request of this service. There have been instances in the past where a particular company would use an actual telephone number but would submit a fictitious address. Telanserphone at this time would deny service to this particular company. u

Mrs. GLORIA JASKOLSKI, 246-11 91st Street, Bellerose, Queens, New York, phone number 347-7612, furnished the following information:

MRS. GLORIA JASKOLSKI

She stated that her sister, JEAN MARTINEZ was currently residing at 40-144 North Meridian Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida and that JEAN MARTINEZ was married to EUGENIO ROLANDO MARTINEZ, also residing at that address. She stated that MARTINEZ was a Cuban. u

She stated that she did not know much about ROLANDO MARTINEZ except what her sister, JEAN, had told her about him which was that he was supposed to be working in some "secret operation" for the government. She stated that whenever she or her sister would question MARTINEZ about his occupation, he was very secretive, so much so that he would not tell his own wife about his work. u

GLORIA JASKOLSKI advised that JEAN MARTINEZ came up to Queens, New York, in April, 1972, for her brother's funeral and stayed at the VASKOLSKI residence for a few days. She stated that on April 14, 1972, JEAN attempted to call MARTINEZ at their home in Miami Beach. Often failing to reach her husband at home, JEAN located ROLANDO MARTINEZ at a friend's residence, who Mrs. JASKOLSKI believed to be a real estate dealer in Miami but did not hear the name of this individual mentioned. u

Mrs. JASKOLSKI further stated that she had heard JEAN MARTINEZ remark on several occasions that her husband was doing "secret" work for the government but was never specific. She stated that her sister and MARTINEZ were planning to get a divorce when she last saw her in April, 1972. u

She advised that ROLANDO and JEAN MARTINEZ had lived in Cuba for three or four years prior to CASTRO's takeover, but when CASTRO came to power, both had to flee from Cuba and came to Miami, Florida. u

JASKOLSKI stated that he knew of no one named BERNARD L. BARKER and that he was certain that BARKER had never called his phone, 347-7612. u

He further stated that his wife, GLORIA JASKOLSKI, had a sister, JEAN MARTINEZ living at Miami, Florida, who was married to ROLANDO MARTINEZ. He advised that his wife kept in touch with her sister, JEAN, but that he knew little about ROLANDO MARTINEZ, who he described as a Cuban who was supposed to be working for the United States government in some unknown capacity according to what JEAN MARTINEZ had told his wife. He stated that he believed JEAN and ROLANDO MARTINEZ were either divorced or in the process of getting a divorce. u

JASKOLSKI advised that his sister-in-law, JEAN MARTINEZ, came to New York in April, 1972, to spend a few days at his residence when one of his wife's brothers died. During that time he believed that JEAN either called Miami to speak with her husband or that ROLANDO MARTINEZ called her at JASKOLSKI's phone in New York. u

He stated that he had had little to do with JEAN and ROLANDO MARTINEZ and neither he nor his wife were aware of MARTINEZ's recent arrest in Washington, D.C. u

N.Y.
On June 26, 1972, Mr. PETER BUCKY, 30 East
81st Street, New York City, telephone number 212-734-5050, furnished the following information:

BUCKY is President of Bucky X-Ray International which was founded by his father in 1908, at which time X-Ray techniques were in the beginning stages of development. Since that time numerous and varied devices have been developed, including many types of X-Ray equipment which are now being used by various law enforcement agencies. u

In conjunction with the above information, BUCKY was contracted by United States Secret Service, approximately eight years ago to supply certain types of X-Ray equipment for detective purposes. This contract was negotiated by AL WONG a Secret Service Agent who has done much work for Secret Service in the area of Presidential protection.

On December 24, 1971, MC CORD purchased a small, used, X-Ray apparatus which MC CORD paid for with a $1,225 check. The check, in the name of MC CORD and his wife, initially bounced for insufficient funds, but within 24 hours MC CORD had apologized to BUCKY and then made good the payment with another check. Since that time MC CORD has had the occasion to telephone BUCKY from his Rockville, Maryland office regarding the purchase, because the machine developed some mechanical problems. u

2.

Approximately six to eight weeks ago, BUCKY made several telephone calls to MC CORD at his office in an unsuccessful attempt to reach MC CORD. On a couple of occasions, different people unknown to BUCKY answered MC CORD's office phone. These unidentified voices seemingly were males with southern accents and could possibly have been Negro or Puerto Rican. BUCKY believes one of these men may have given the name O'HENRY TODD because this name is noted on a telephone index card on which BUCKY has MC CORD's office phone number. BUCKY has no other explanation for the appearance of the above name on the card. u

During the course of one of the conversations one of the unidentified men said that MC CORD would be working late that night and could be reached if BUCKY were to call back that night. When BUCKY finally did speak to MC CORD approximately six weeks ago, MC CORD mentioned that he was "extremely busy". u

BUCKY could furnish no information of pertinence regarding MC CORD's recent arrest. BUCKY said he was shocked when he heard and read about MC CORD's involvement in the break in of the Democratic Headquarters. BUCKY stated that he always held MC CORD in a very high regard believing him to be unquestionably honest and trustworthy.

[REDACTED] (S)

BUCKY stated that when he learned of MC CORD's arrest, he called MC CORD's wife out of courtsey to offer his assistance if it were possible. BUCKY related that he would still help MC CORD if he could, but at the same time he would assist the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in any way in its investigation of the MC CORD case with the only stipulation being that BUCKY's name be kept confidential regarding any personal information he may furnish about MC CORD. u 3.

When asked specifically about MC CORD's involvement in the Washington breakin, BUCKY replied that it seemed obvious to him that MC CORD was "hired by the Republicans to do a bugging job". BUCKY said this is only his personal observation based on reading newspaper accounts of the case. BUCKY noted that MC CORD seemingly has a very extensive network of "contacts" in the Washington, D.C. area. u

BUCKY added that he has never heard of any of the other individuals involved in this case and concluded by stating that he doesn't know any of MC CORD's associates or acquaintances other than AL WONG. u

Remarks:

Specimens Q51 through Q56 and the ALSO SUBMITTED items will be treated for latent fingerprints. The result of that examination and the disposition of the submitted materials will be furnished by a separate report. u

Although lack of suitable laboratory facilities for the examination precluded a detailed examination of the items, some observations were noted as the result of such examination as could be made. It was noted that the Hamilton City Police on specimens Q51 through Q56 were probably prepared by JAMES MC CORD, JR., the writer of specimen Q51.

LEWIS A. MITCHELL, Attorney, Wachovia Bank Building, is a friend of the authors of the investigation and the Director of the Investigating Agency. He furnished the following information:

MITCHELL stated that he is a partner in the law firm of Smith, Anderson, Blount and Mitchell, formerly known as the firm of Smith, Anderson, Dorsett, Blount and Reganold.

The current Raleigh, North Carolina, Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company Directory reflects that the law firm of Smith, Anderson, Dorsett, Blount and Reganold, Attorneys, is the one other to Raleigh, North Carolina, telephone 842-6663. He stated, however, that the sole substitute to this telephone is now the law firm of Smith, Anderson, Blount and Mitchell.

MITCHELL stated that he is currently Treasurer of the "North Carolina Florence Committee to Re-elect the President" and in this connection possibly has had some contact with the "Committee to Re-elect the President", Washington, D. C.

MITCHELL stated that the late WILLIS SMITH, JR. who was killed in December, 1971, had been a Co-chairman of the "North Carolina Committee for the Re-election of the President." After his death, he was succeeded as Co-chairman by his wife. In this connection, it is possible that Mrs. SMITH who utilizes their office in her position as Co-chairman of the "North Carolina Committee for the Re-election of the President" has had some contact with the "Committee to Re-elect the President", Washington, D. C. He said that he and Mrs. SMITH were the only logical persons connected with the law firm who might have had contact with persons connected with the re-election of the President.

MITCHELL stated that he was unable to furnish any information concerning the burglary of the Democratic National Committee Headquarters, Washington, D. C., June 17, 1972, or the persons involved.

GARY SCHULZ, JR., Assistant Vice-President,
Chicago Title Insurance Company (CTIC), furnished
the following information: Chicago, Ill.

CTIC has performed title insurance services for Great American Mortgage Investors (GAMI) on numerous occasions. One such instance involved a condominium project in Miami Beach, Florida, to be known as "Biarritz Towers". The "shell" corporation set up to build the condominium was known as Biarritz Towers Incorporated (BTI). The identities of stockholders of BTI, SCHULZ regarded as confidential. The officers who signed any public documents are not known to SCHULZ because copies retained by CTIC in Chicago are unsigned. The originals of the public documents, such as the deed, mortgage, second mortgage to CTIC, and agreement for possession are filed in Dade County, Florida. u

In the normal course of business, CTIC will investigate the corporate entity, its stockholders, and the contractor to determine whether any contemplated project in which CTIC might serve as an insurer is a worthwhile risk. This investigation involves obtaining financial statements from the stockholders and contractors to fix their personal liability and involves compiling a list of recent business activities to see the extent of the expertise of the contractor and stockholders. GAMI will always represent to a potential mortgagor that the loan commitment will be forthcoming only after GAMI has a full report from CTIC. u

In this case, since GAMI did issue a $495,000.00 loan to BTI, SCHULZ could conclude that the CTIC investigation was favorable. He could not produce the financial statements and other background information without the issuance of a subpoena. u

SCHULZ stated that CTIC did take a second mortgage in this transaction. Consequently, BTI must have put forth some equity as security. Normally, this would be an irrevocable letter of credit from a commercial bank, but it could be a cash deposit or the value of the land. SCHULZ could not say what the security put forth by BTI was without the issuance of a subpoena. u

SCHULZ stated that a CTIC cost estimate of the project exceeded the contractor's (HIRAM GONZALES) cost estimate by about $70,000.00. Consequently, BTI had to put up an additional $70,000.00. Normally, this is done in the form of an irrevocable letter of credit. SCHULZ would not state how this "construction cost contingency" was financed by BTI without the issuance of a subpoena. u

The closing of the transaction took place June 2, 1972. Present for BTI was WILLIAM SCHULZ who acted as President and Attorney, BERNARD PARKER, who acted as Secretary and (FNU) GARCIGA, who served as Accountant. $14,975.00 was disbursed at closing to cover title costs, but there has been no other disbursement to date. u

BERNARD PARKER and HIRAM GONZALES were unknown to CTIC prior to the Blarney project. u

WILLIAM MILLS of CTIC was primarily involved in computing the cost estimate for CTIC and would probably have had some direct knowledge of the whole operation. He is currently in St. Louis moving his family to Chicago. u

If a subpoena is necessary, it should be directed to either JEROME RAWSON or GEORGE MORRILL, Law Clerks, CTIC. u

On June 29, 1972, SAM BRAY, Chief of Security, Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company (CINB), Chicago, advised that Banco Internacional (BI) maintains a United States funds account at CINB. He had been able to locate an employee CONNIE OLTMAN, who had some direct knowledge of BI check #65414, payable to MANUEL OGARRINO. u

On July 3, 1972, BRAY advised that the April, 1972 bank statement for BI showed a $15,000 debit on April 28, 1972. The account balance was usually about $150,000. The transactions for April, 1972, averaged about 8 per week, and were wide-ranging in amounts. Some debits were as low as $20 while others were as high as $17,000 and $29,745.

On June 29, 1972, CONNIE OLTMAN, former senior investigator, International Investigations Department, FBI, advised she had received a phone call on April 25, 1972, from a Mr. REYNALDO, Republic National Bank, Miami, Florida. He stated Republic had sent CINB a $15,000 check on April 20, 1972, drawn on the account of Banco Internacional at CINB. He wanted to know when and if the check had been paid. OLTMAN determined the check had not cleared at the time of the call. REYNALDO requested the BI account be checked daily and he be advised when the check cleared. On April 28, 1972, the check cleared and GENTLE POE, Investigations Clerk for CINB, telephoned the information to REYNALDO. u

On June 30, 1972, a public information service of Illinois Bell Telephone Company indicated number 206-5541, was listed to the O'Hare Travelodge Motel, 3503 Mannheim Road, Des Plaines, Illinois. The same date, CARL TUCKERSTONE, night manager, advised the motel maintains no record of incoming prepaid telephone calls. He said complete registration records for March 30, 1972, were in the possession of the owner, Mrs. DOROTHY JOHNSON, who would not be available for interview until July 3, 1972. u

On July 3, 1972, Mrs. DOROTHY JOHNSON, owner, O'Hare Travelodge Motel, advised that the motel maintains no daily records of persons registered there. There was no one place she could go to determine who was registered on March 30, 1972. Past registrations are filed at the end of each month alphabetically by the last name of the registrant. The names of all subjects, unknown subjects, and aliases developed to date in this case were searched for March, 1972, through this file with negative results. When each guest registers, his billing is placed on a folio which is kept in numerical sequence with all others. A review was made of all folios (300) for the approximate period of March 27, 1972 to April 4, 1972. Nothing of significance was noted. All outgoing long distance phone calls placed directly from the motel rooms (i.e. not collect or credit card calls) were reviewed, but no calls were placed to area codes 202 (Washington, D. C.) 301 (Maryland) or 703 (Virginia).u

On July 3, 1972, Mrs. WILLIAM VILLS, 1217 Ross Court, Downers Grove, Illinois, advised that her husband was still in the process of settling his family in the area and was not home at home. She expected him to be at work at Chicago Title Insurance Company on July 5, 1972.u

testimony before Federal Grand Jury (FGJ). Further. B3

After testimony of Hoback before FGJ, she was debriefed by two Committee to Re-elect the President (CRP) attorneys one of whom indicated concern as to Hoback's knowledge of CRP's finances; attorneys dismissed Hoback and called conference with Sloan which lasted about two hours. Later, while at Sloan's residence, Sloan received telephone call from Fred LaRue after which Sloan expressed belief efforts being made to keep him from being subpoenaed. u

(2) Results of interview with Herbert L. Porter, Scheduling Director, CRP, relating to meetings with Jeb Magruder, George Gordon Liddy, and method of disbursement funds set out. A disbursement to Liddy about 5/10/72, may have been involved in purchase of Communications Electronics, Inc., receiver. u

At 5:00 p.m. today I called Mr. Henry Petersen, Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division. I asked him if he could see any objection to our interview of John Ehrlichman at the White House. Petersen said he certainly had no objection to such an interview, the only thing that he wanted to be sure of was that we not conduct a fishing expedition by interviewing people at the White House. u

I told him that such an interview with Ehrlichman would be directed specifically at his knowledge of the activities of Hunt and Liddy who, according to our investigation, worked for Ehrlichman. Petersen said this was certainly logical and he had no objections whatsoever. u

I told Petersen that in accordance with our previous agreement with John Dean at the White House, prior to contacting Ehrlichman we would go through Dean to arrange for the interview. u

There follows a summary of Bureau efforts to trace funds possibly involved in financing captioned matter. WJ

TRACING OF MONEY RECOVERED IN CONNECTION WITH ARRESTS: At the time of subjects' arrests on 6/17/72, and subsequent search of their hotel rooms, 44 new $100 bills were found, 10 of which bore the prefix "C" and 34 the prefix "F". The 10 prefix "C" bills were disbursed by the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank to the Girard Bank and Trust Company, Philadelphia on 4/3/72. It was not possible to trace these prefix bills beyond this point because of the bank's practice of not recording the serial numbers of $100 bills received or disbursed. WJ

The prefix "F" bills were determined to have been sent by the Miami Federal Reserve Branch to the Republic National Bank, Miami, on 4/18/72. Subject Bernard L. Barker maintains an account at this bank and while he is known to have received $10,000 in $100 bills on 5/8/72, from this bank, it could not be specifically established that the pertinent prefix "F" bills were part of the money Barker received on 5/8/72. Mc

BANK ACCOUNT OF BERNARD L. BARKER: Subject Barker as Barker Associates, a real estate firm, maintains an account at the Republic National Bank of Miami. A review of the records of this account shows that on 4/21/72, Barker presented a cashier's check dated 4/10/72, payable to Kenneth Dahlberg, drawn on the First Bank and Trust Company of Boca Raton, Florida. Upon checking with the latter bank and determining from it that the cashier's check was "as good as gold" Barker was given $25,000 in cash by the Republic National Bank. 600

Barker on 4/21/72 presented to the Republic National Bank four checks dated 4/4/72, totaling $88,000, drawn on the Banco Internacional, Mexico City, payable to Manuel Ogarrio. Since these checks were payable to a third party, Barker was told he would have to deposit these checks.

and wait for them to clear before he could receive the money for them. On 5/8/72, Barker was given $89,000 in cash by the Republic National Bank for the foregoing checks. u

KENNETH DAHLBERG - $25,000 CASHIER'S CHECK: Kenneth Dahlberg is a prominent industrialist and Regional Chairman of the Finance Committee to Reelect the President, who lives in Minneapolis and winters in Boca Raton, Florida. After several refusals to be interviewed, Dahlberg on 7/6/72, consented to be interviewed regarding the foregoing $25,000 cashier's check cashed by subject Barker. Dahlberg stated this check represented cash contributions he had obtained while in Boca Raton and he furnished this check to Maurice H. Stans, Chairman, Finance Committee to Reelect the President on 4/11/72, in Washington, D. C. According to Dahlberg he has no knowledge of what happened to this check after he surrendered it to Stans. Dahlberg stated he was not acquainted with subject Barker or any of the other subjects involved in this matter. It is to be noted that during the period 6/23/72 to 6/26/72, when we were endeavoring to interview Dahlberg concerning this check, he made three telephone calls to the Committee to Reelect the President, including one to the office of Robert Mardian, former Assistant Attorney General, now working with this committee. u

INTERVIEW WITH MAURICE STANS

Kenneth Dahlberg $25,000 Check

Maurice Stans, Chairman, Finance Committee to Reelect the President, was interviewed 7/14/72, at which time he advised that the $25,000 cashier's check was given to him by Kenneth Dahlberg in Washington, D. C., 4/11/72. Stans in turn gave this check to Hugh Walter Sloan, Jr., who at the time was responsible for the supervision of funds received by the Finance Committee. According to Stans, Sloan then gave this check to George Gordon Liddy who was acting as legal counsel to the Finance Committee for a determination as to how this check should be handled since it was dated 4/10/72, but the funds which it represented had been contributed prior to 4/7/72, the effective date of the new Federal Disclosure Act. Sloan subsequently advised Stans the money from the check had been received by the committee. Stans can furnish no explanation as to how Barker came to be in possession of Dahlberg's $25,000 cashier's check. u

It is noted George Gordon Liddy, former FBI Agent, has been identified as the individual who traveled with Everett Howard Hunt in January, 1972, in attempts to recruit former CIA employees for a special security force to prevent political espionage to the Republican Party. u

Banco Internacional Bank Drafts

Stans advised that on 4/6/72, he learned from Sloan that the Committee to Reelect the President had received $100,000 in the form of bank drafts on Mexican banks. These checks, according to Stans, were part of a $300,000 deposit to the committee's account. Stans, when informed the Mexican drafts totaled $89,000 and such was shown on the committee's records, replied that Sloan had told him $100,000 in Mexican bank drafts

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

had been received and this is all he knew about the matter. Stans could offer no explanation as to how these bank drafts came into Barker's possession nor was he aware of the identity of the American firm which allegedly made this contribution. u

When Stans was requested to make Sloan available for immediate interview he advised that Sloan had resigned two weeks ago. The committee's attorney at this point stated he would make Sloan available as soon as he could be located. Sloan was subsequently contacted on 7/17/72, and he declined to be interviewed until he had a chance to discuss this matter with his attorney. u

It is noted that Bernard L. Barker at the time of his release on $40,000 bond on 7/14/72, said he received the four checks totaling $89,000 from two men and turned the money over to them. He took the 5th Amendment when asked to identify these individuals. u

BANK ACCOUNTS OF JAMES WALTER McCORD: McCord maintains a personal checking account and a business account in the name of McCord Associates at the Maryland National Bank, College Park, Maryland. The records of these accounts show he made a $10,000 cash deposit to his personal account on 4/12; a $10,000 cash deposit to his business account on 5/31/72; and a $10,000 cash deposit to his business account on 6/12/72. u

In addition, McCord on behalf of the Committee to Reelect the President on 2/22/72, opened an account in the name of Dedicated Friends of a Better America, with McCord as Chairman, at the National Savings and Trust Company, Washington, D. C. This account was closed 4/17/72, and during the period it was opened over $90,000 passed through this account. u

FRANK ANTHONY STURGIS was born FRANK ANGELO FIORINI at Norfolk, Virginia, on December 9, 1924. His father was ANGELO FIORINI and his mother was MARY FIORINI, who later divorced ANGELO and became MARY STURGIS. Subject was raised in the Norfolk, Virginia, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, areas and attended Holy Rosary Elementary School in Pennsylvania (1931-1938); St. Mary's Academy, location unknown (1938-1940); Blair Junior High School, Norfolk, Virginia (1941); a high school in Germantown, Pennsylvania (1942). At various times, the subject has indicated having attended two and one-half or three years of college but this fact has not been verified.

STURGIS was a member of the United States Marine Corps (October 5, 1942 to October 23, 1945). He received an honorable discharge and held serial number 479341. He was a member of the United States Naval Reserve, inactive status (November 9, 1947 through August 30, 1948). He received an honorable discharge and held serial number 2536028. FRANK ANTHONY STURGIS

While a resident of Norfolk, Virginia, STURGIS held employments as a tavern manager, Top Hat Night Club and Commercial Grille; insurance salesman, cab driver, clerk; and Norfolk city patrolman, from June 5, 1946, to September 7, 1946.

STURGIS has used the name FRANK ANGELO FLORINI since his entry into Cuban revolutionary activity in 1953. At that time, he joined Cuban rebels led by FIDEL CASTRO against the Cuban government of President FULGENCIO BATISTA.

Following the advent of CASTRO to power in January, 1959, subject became a captain in the Cuban Air Force, serving as a liaison officer between the Cuban and American Air Forces. He was also appointed Inspector of Gambling in Havana, Cuba, by CASTRO. In this capacity, he became acquainted with the leading gamblers in Cuba, including various American gamblers and hoodlums.

He was closely associated in 1959 with Major PEDRO DIAZ LANZ, then head of the Cuban Air Force, and as of June, 1959, he departed Cuba when Major LANZ became the first high official of the CASTRO regime to defect.

On March 31, 1959, the subject appeared voluntarily at the headquarters of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in Washington, D. C., and advised that he wished to alert the Bureau to the communist learnings of FIDEL CASTRO. He also wished to volunteer his services to the Bureau as a source of information on Cuban matters and on efforts of Cuban revolutionaries to foment revolutions in other Latin American nations.

STURGIS gained notoriety when, on October 21, 1959, he co-piloted with Major LANZ a B-25 owned by him from the United States to Cuba, where several thousand anti-CASTRO leaflets were dropped on the city of Havana. As a result of this incident, the Federal Aviation Agency, on May 26, 1960, revoked the subject's pilot certificate.

On April 26, 1960, United States Immigration and Naturalization Service handed down a decision expatriating STURGIS from the United States. He was held to have voluntarily expatriated himself through service in the armed forces of Cuba subsequent to January 1, 1959.

P/S
Prior to this decision, subject stated to an Agent of the FBI on April 5, 1960, that a congressional investigation headed by Senator WAYNE MORSE was under way to clarify the facts involving deportation proceedings then pending against him by Immigration and Naturalization Service. He claimed that he had discussed his case with Senator GEORGE SMATHERS, who, according to STURGIS, inquired of Secretary of State CHRISTIAN HERTER concerning issuance by HERTER of a certificate of loss of citizenship. Subject claimed that HERTER had told SMATHERS that the certificate was inadvertently and mistakenly issued due to the large volume of documents which passed over HERTER's desk daily. The subject stated he felt that the interest shown by Senators SMATHERS and MORSE would quash any adverse action in his case.

On March 18, 1961, the Late Home Edition of the "Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch," the "Portsmouth Star," Norfolk, Portsmouth, South Norfolk, Virginia, contained an article which disclosed that the subject's citizenship had been restored based on an appeal to Washington, D.C., and the Immigration Board of Appeals there.

In 1961, the subject formed an organization called the International Anti-Communist Brigade (IACB), which was described as an anti-communist organization opposed to the CASTRO regime in Cuba and organized to fight communism in any area of the world.

On May 14, 1961, the "Miami Herald," a daily newspaper published at Miami, Florida, contained the Sunday supplement, "Parade Magazine," which carried a cover photograph of the subject and an article highlighting his anti-CASTRO activities, written by syndicated columnist JACK ANDERSON. An American soldier of fortune in Cuba says

WE WILL FINISH THE JOB

Cuba is one of the biggest stories of 1961. It is a matter of grave concern to the whole world, and it is a major problem for the world's leaders. But also swept up in it are countless lesser men. Regardless of the final outcome, these men—Cuban exiles and fellow freedom fighters—are truly making history.

One of these little men is Frank Fiorini. American-born, a Castro supporter who split with Castro, he played a prominent role in the April landings in Cuba. PARADE readers first met Fiorini in an article, Soldiers of Fortune (June 12, 1960). After the Castro revolution, Fiorini lost his U.S. citizenship. When he turned against Castro, however, Sen. George Smathers of Florida, on PARADE's appeal, helped Fiorini win a hearing before the State Department. On March 14 the citizenship of this dedicated freedom fighter was restored.

Here Fiorini reveals the inside story of the April landing, and what preceded them—and tells why he and his companions will be victorious, in spite of the ups and downs.

As you read this, the fight for Cuban freedom is continuing. My compañeros on that embattled island possess the indomitable will of men who know that one setback or one victory does not decide the cause of liberty. It is this fiery spirit that has enabled them to strike back, again and again, against the Castro tyranny.

Today it is popular to consider the April landings an attempted large-scale invasion which Castro crushed. In truth, they were only a small raid, not a landing in force, as Castro would have the world now believe.

Now I am free to reveal, for the first time, the truth of how the recent historic landings were plotted, and how, on April 17, they finally were carried out.

For a long time, we had been working in stealth to establish our underground. We came and went under cover of the dark. Sometimes we slipped through the Sugar-Cane Curtain by boat, playing a deadly game of hide-and-seek with Castro's gunboats among the offshore atolls and coral reefs. Sometimes we swooped over the tree-tops by plane and looked down upon Castro's bright orange patrol cars. We kept secret trysts with underground leaders, dumped supplies from the air into guerrilla hideouts. We returned to Florida for more arms.

Using a secret code taken from the Bible, we kept in daily radio contact with shopkeepers, students, workers, peasants, even militiamen. At night they blew up bridges, sabotaged factories, attacked small outposts.

Many of us once fought for Castro and the democracy he promised. Now we fight against him who turned our dream of democracy into a Communist nightmare.

A Fight for Freedom

Because I am an American, some call me a soldier of fortune. But my fight is for freedom. In my own way, I am fighting for my country, which cannot tolerate a Communist colony upon its back doorstep.

From the first our fight against Castro was complicated by his own revolutionary experience. He recognized the strategic importance of the mountains, which he used as a base to batter Batista. Whereas Batista's troops stuck to the roads, Castro's militiamen swarmed over the mountains.

He also knew that a successful revolt must have the support of the people. To hold the loyalty of the campesinos, the dirty-necks who inhabit the countryside, Castro put shirts on their backs and food in their bellies.

Of no small help to Castro has been our own disunity. The Cuban exiles have been divided into a hundred movimientos preoccupied with their own rivalries. For over two years, they dissipated their funds and energies in inter-faction quarrels. Most have been mere debating societies whose members talked and dreamed big but have little support inside Cuba. I finally became fed up with all of them and formed my own International Brigade, training in the Florida Everglades.

In helping to set up an anti Castro force inside Cuba, I collaborated with Victor Emmanuel Panique, the legendary "Diago" who directed the Havana underground for Castro. Diago is a stout, stocky daredevil who wears a cigar in his mouth as a permanent article of dress. He fears nothing.

One of our most important moves in preparing for the April landings was to open a guerrilla pocket inside Las Villas Province where Diago had been raised. He prepared to activate his underground in Cuba, and I alerted my International Brigade. But first, we had to scout the scene in Las Villas.

Shortly before Christmas, we arranged to meet the underground chiefs at a secret spot on Cuba's northern coast. We communicated by radio, using the Bible code. We headed for a tiny atoll in the Bahamas.

Diago had crated arms on the atoll with all the secrecy of the notorious pirate Captain Kidd, who, according to legend, used these same atolls for burying his treasure. We loaded a 45-foot cabin cruiser with arms, mounted a 20 mm. cannon in the stern and plowed across the Caribbean.

After dark we anchored in a cove off the north coast of Las Villas. The silence was complete. Not a light, not a sound from shore; only the gentle, soothing lapping of the water against the cruiser's hull. But in Castro's Cuba by night, you never knew when machine guns would start to chatter and tracers cut their strange patterns like fireflies about your ears.

Short of Ammunition

We waited tensely. Then from the shore came the wink of a flashlight. We returned the signal. After another wait, there was a faint drip drip of muffled oars.

A rowboat with four men aboard pulled alongside. Diago and I cocked our Tommy guns. But our visitors spoke the right password. Two were commanders in Castro's militia, the others were civilians. All were members of Diago's underground.

We hid on an atoll for a few days while we transferred our lethal cargo to the mainland and received reports of what was happening in Cuba. The patriotic leaders who visited us, always by rowboat after dark, told of growing anger against Castro. His alliance with communism had disillusioned most thinking men. But even the masses were muttering over the hardships he produced by purchasing Communist arms instead of food and putting guns before butter.

The underground chiefs revealed a chink in Castro's armor: his militia bristled with weapons that were short of ammunition. By rationing ammunition, Castro unwittingly showed how little he trusted his own men. Apparently he took no chances that they would defect and turn their arms against him.

This scarcity of ammunition was discovered by Diago's men. These daredevils would creep up behind Castro militiamen, prod them with daggers and order them to drop their guns and ammunition belts. If they would agree to walk straight ahead without looking back, their lives would be spared.

Diago's contacts also supplied us with a list of chevitos, Castro informers, in Las Villas. But our plan to open a new guerrilla front received an unexpected setback. The Democratic Revolutionary Front launched a guerrilla attack in the very area we had chosen. Castro poured in his militia in tremendous numbers. Of 200 guerrillas, only 40 escaped.

Dismayed, we abandoned our plan and pulled back to the Bahamas. We tried to deliver another boatload of weapons, but before our cabin cruiser could make contact, it was caught in the headlight of a jeep patrolling the coastal road. Then a Cuban frigate, apparently summoned by radio, bore down on us. We managed to give it the slip, however, by racing to the offshore atolls, where the water was too shallow and snagged with coral reefs for the bigger ship to follow.

Pepper • May 14, 1961

Meanwhile, Castro's agents in Miami suspected what we were up to. They had orders upon our return never to let us out of their sight. But we turned the tables on them and began spying on them. I intercepted a telegram to one Castro agent, Rudy Fancitty, who was registered at Miami Beach's Surrey Hotel. The wire, obviously in code, was addressed to "Lieutenant" Fancitty and was signed by Celia Sanchez. I remember Celia well from my service with Castro in the Sierra Maestra. She was probably closer to Fidel than any other person.

Back at our base in the Bahamas, we rented a twin-engine plane, which we loaded with weapons and fitted with Cuban markings. We hoped these might discourage the militia from taking pot shots at us as we flew low over Cuba.

It was 6:30 a.m. when we zoomed across the beach at tree-top level. The sun was up, and people were stirring. We spotted several bright orange patrol cars with cream-colored tops. Militiamen waved at us; our masquerade was succeeding.

Back to the Boat

Diago assured me that we could land on the roadway near the rendezvous spot. But the roads were either too short, too curved or too narrow to set the plane down. We circled the area for 35 anxious minutes, then decided to dump the arms. Fortunately we had prepared for this emergency. The weapons were wrapped in blankets of foam rubber to prevent damage.

The weapons were picked up and safely hidden. On successive days, we made two more attempts to land. We circled in vain over sugar-cane fields and green hills. Each time we were forced to drop our supplies.

The best way to get ashore, we decided, was by boat. This time we pointed our cabin cruiser toward Oriente Province where I had once fought alongside Castro in the mountains. As we churned across the sea, we amused ourselves by listening to Castro rage over Radio Havana about our flights. Castro screamed about "invasion planes," naming the areas over which we had flown. The phony markings, which had confused the militiamen, didn't fool him.

A United Front

For several days we tried to land on the Cuban shore, but Castro's gunboat patrols proved too vigilant and we had to give up the effort. Meanwhile, however, another group of men went ashore in Pinar Del Rio Province. Among them was Angus McNair, a fellow American. But five of the group, including McNair, somehow got separated from the others and were picked up by Castro's militia. Now McNair, a dedicated fighter for freedom, has been shot by Castro without trial. So have other valiant friends of our cause.

But McNair and the others did not die in vain. And it is important to remember that, whatever our situation now, Castro himself did not win his triumph for three long years. Despite all the ups and downs, victories and defeats, those of us who believe in Cuban freedom are in the battle to the end. ■

FRANK ANTHONY SPIEGEL

In September, 1961, Dr. ORLANDO BOSCH, the leader of the Revolutionary Movement for Insurrectional Recovery (MIRR), stated to Special Agents of the FBI that he had permitted the subject to go on a raid sponsored by the MIRR against CASTRO forces in February, 1961. BOSCH stated that this raiding party had traveled by boat but had failed to rendezvous with other elements of the group and had never actually landed in Cuba. He stated that he was dissatisfied with the subject's performance, whom he described as a soldier of fortune and publicity seeker. OK

The subject, by his own announcement, has participated in plans for several anti-CASTRO revolutionary adventures over the years.

In April, 1967, it was learned that the subject was involved with other individuals in a plan to blow up a Cuban ship in a Mexican seaport, possibly Veracruz.

On April 21, 1967, RONALD EDWARD THOMPSON, born July 1, 1944, at Norfolk, Virginia, was interviewed by Agents of the FBI at Miami, Florida. He stated that he was the son of FRANK FLORINI and that his mother had died while FLORINI was overseas during World War II and that FLORINI had never assumed responsibility for him. He stated that he had contacted the subject as a result of his reading an article in "Parade Magazine" concerning the subject's Cuban revolutionary activities. THOMPSON related that he, the subject, and DONALD FRANCIS ROOME had, in fact, traveled to Mexico in the beginning of April, 1967, in the subject's 1958 Cadillac automobile. THOMPSON stated that prior to this trip, the subject was in close contact with Dr. ORLANDO BOSCH and other members of the MIRR. THOMPSON claimed to be present when explosives and detonators were hidden in the body of the subject's car at a Miami garage. He stated that Dr. BOSCH and other Cuban associates were present. THOMPSON stated that these explosives were to be placed on a ship at Tampico or Veracruz, Mexico. He stated that this sabotage was intended to be an anti-CASTRO action supported by the MIRR. THOMPSON stated that circumstances prevented execution of this sabotage and that the explosives and related equipment were subsequently buried at a location in Mexico, which he described in detail.

FRANK ANTHONY STORGIS

When interviewed on May 1, 1967, the subject claimed his trip to Mexico in April, 1967, together with ROCHE and THOMPSON, was in the nature of a vacation trip. He denied that he carried any explosives to Mexico and denied the participation of Dr. ORLANDO BOSCH and himself in any scheme to blow up a ship in Mexico.

On September 25, 1967, the "Miami News," a Miami, Florida daily newspaper, contained an article captioned "Exile Ransom Try Seeks Swiss Aid." This article indicated that the subject's organization, IACB, was endeavoring to arrange ransom of five hundred Cuban political prisoners in exchange for five million dollars worth of medicine and foodstuffs. GERALDINE SHAMMA, an American citizen and officer of IACB, previously imprisoned in Cuba, joined the subject in attempting to carry out the ransom plan.

631 [REDACTED]

During the summer of 1968, information was received from various persons in the Miami and Fort Lauderdale, Florida areas that the subject was attempting to organize a mercenary force to fight in Cuba. Volunteers for this force were solicited through advertisements placed in newspapers asking for "soldiers of fortune." Several persons answering these advertisements were interviewed and advised that they had been offered varying amounts of money to become the nucleus of a cadre to command an armed band for assaults against the CASTRO regime in Cuba. The organization was organized under the auspices of the IACB and volunteers were told that the overall operation was to be directed by a Colonel QUESADA.

FRANK ANTHONY STURGIS

According to the subject, the sum of fifteen million dollars had been placed in a Swiss bank for the purpose of ransoming political prisoners in Cuba. These efforts had failed and the funds were to be diverted for military action which hopefully would be against prisoner stockades in Cuba.

All participants were interviewed at Miami upon their release from custody; most admitted knowledge of participating in a military operation against Cuba. Each claimed to be a member of a Florida-based anti-CASTRO organization known as "The Secret Army Organization," led by the subject. The subject indicated that Colonel FRANCISCO QUESADA and at least 25 other Cuban exiles participating in the plan were to rendezvous with the "Amigo" but that the rendezvous had failed when the boat ran aground through incompetence of the crewmen.

As recently as September, 1970, Miami-based sources having knowledge of activities of individuals and organizations engaged in anti-CASTRO activities could furnish no information concerning the subject's activities.

No specific alliance between syndicated columnist JACK ANDERSON and the subject is known, other than the fact that a few years ago, ANDERSON and the subject collaborated on a Sunday newspaper supplement magazine article. The subject is considered one of ANDERSON's Cuban sources of information. It has been alleged that ANDERSON or one of ANDERSON's aides gained access to the Washington, D. C. jail and interviewed the subject or one of his associates.

The subject had been involved in revolutionary activities of one sort or another since January, 1959. The subject has maintained continuous contact with all active Cuban groups in the Miami area and continues to claim that he represents a group of American patriots who wish to fight communism in Cuba and Latin America. The subject is considered by most Cuban exile groups as an opportunist, mercenary, adventurer, and government informant. A few groups feel that the subject is a part-time CIA operator. Others consider the subject a busybody and meddler. The subject is considered unreliable, dishonest, an opportunist, and motivated by profit and personal gain, rather than by any political ideology or personal morality. 61

The subject has the reputation of being a professional mercenary who would do anything for money and is regarded as a scoundrel.

It was reported that the subject had defrauded the CASTRO government out of large sums of money in 1959, which were intended for the purchase of aircraft and other equipment for the regime. During that time, the subject held a position with the Revolutionary Air Force (FAR) of Cuba. Miami-based anti-CASTRO Cuban groups are generally distrustful of the subject as many now know him by reputation to be an unsavory person who would do anything for money.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Sturgis, a native of the United States, who was born in 1913.

LOCAL ANTI-COMMUNISTS say Barker and Sturgis actively sought support in the country for President Nixon's decision to invade North Vietnamese territory.

They failed to organize a 200-man party in the South of Cuba's supporting the blockade. At the time they said they were representing a captive military organization.

Barker generated some anti-Cubanism among the exiles by what one Cuban activist leader described as his "lack of manners" and the fact that he had "too much to say."

Barker's friendship with Sturgis apparently dates to the pre-Castro period.

His daughter, Mrs. Maria Moffett, 28, a former secretary of Florida Congressman Claude Roper and now a resident of Bethesda, Md., said at last week's trial that she had known Sturgis "ever since I was a child."

OF THE FOUR Miami men involved in the bugging incident, it is Sturgis who is best known publicly, but under his former name of Fiorini.

His name has been in local news columns as an adventurer for nearly two decades. There is some suspicion that not all the exploits he has been associated with actually have taken place.

Sturgis is believed to be about 48 years old and has given his hometown as Norfolk, Va.

He has said he became involved in revolutionary activities when he traveled with his bride to Miami from Norfolk for a honeymoon and attended a rally by Fidel Castro, who was then drumming up support to overthrow the Batista government.

HE WAS, said Sturgis, impressed by what he heard and eventually joined the Castro movement as a pilot. He broke with Castro in mid-1959, about six months after Batista's fall.

Since joining the anti-Castro effort in mid-1959, Sturgis has been involved in a variety of revolutionary activities but is not known to have been active with any of the major Cuban exile groups.

Presumably, he did at one time have at least some tenuous associations with the CIA, but even that is uncertain.

In 1960, Fiorini, as he still called himself, was stripped of his U.S. citizenship and ordered to leave the country for his role as an active participant in the Castro revolution and in later anti-Castro efforts, including a leader group over Florida in July 1960.

With Fiorini's name, Sturgis, said, often coming to the attention, citizenship was stripped and Fiorini fully changed his name to Sturgis.

Whether as Fiorini or Sturgis, he has continued to be a would-be full-time revolutionary and part-time employee at a variety of jobs that have ranged from selling used cars to, most recently, selling aluminum windows.

In the early 1970s, Sturgis organized the International Anti-Communist Brigade, which, at one point in 1963, he claimed had 6,000 members of which 700 were actively training to combat communism "wherever it exists."

His most recent revolutionary escapade of note came in 1968 when a dozen others were seized by British Honduras authorities and held for 11 days.

THE SEIZURE, Sturgis claimed, thwarted what was to have been a commando attack on Cuba.

One long-time acquaintance of Sturgis calls him "a nice person, a fine person but he never got over being up in the hills fighting in Cuba... that's what he wants to keep doing."

Others aren't so charitable, including one Cuban exile active in the local revolutionary movement who says that Sturgis "is distrusted by serious revolutionary groups."

For the past 18 months or so, Sturgis, in between whatever else he is involved in, has worked as a commission salesman for the Pan American Aluminum Corp.

William J. Keefe, in charge of the company's Miami sales, said that Fiorini had been in Friday morning, June 16, "and we went over some orders that he had taken."

Keefe declined to discuss Sturgis personally but said that he was not "one of our better salesmen."

HE COULD NOT, on what he sold for Pan American, make a decent living, said Keefe.

As a commission salesman, Sturgis could do as much or as little as he liked and his time was his own.

When he registered as a Democrat in 1962, after his citizenship was restored, he gave his address as 2313 NW 122nd Ave. in Miami, and Sturgis and his family continue to live there in the slightly run-down white house with its unkempt yard at the edge of the Westview Golf Course and Country Club.

A teenage girl who answered when a reporter knocked on the door last week, acknowledged that it was the home of Frank Sturgis "but we don't know anything about it... you'll have to talk to my mother."

At television Channel 23, where she works, Mrs. Sturgis declined to discuss her husband's case.

Results of the examination:

It was determined that the typewriting on specimens Q45 through Q48 was prepared on a typewriter equipped with Royal pica type, the letters of which are spaced 10 to the inch. In addition to Royal typewriters, this style of type has been used on Singer Professional portable typewriters. It was further determined that the typewriting on specimens Q45 through Q48 was all done on one typewriter.

It was determined that the typewriting on specimen Q49 also was prepared on a typewriter equipped with Royal pica type, the letters of which are spaced 10 to the inch. The typewriting on specimen Q49 was prepared on a typewriter different from that employed in the preparation of the typewriting on specimens Q45 through Q48. u

The typewriting on specimens Q45 through Q49 was not prepared on the typewriter designated K1 or on the typewriters employed in the preparation of specimens K7 and K8. u

Although limited writing and the presence of some variations would not permit a definite conclusion being reached, characteristics were noted which indicate that the signatures "Howard" on specimens Q46, Q48, and Q49 may have been prepared by the same individual. u

The writings on specimens Q46, Q48, and Q49 are not sufficiently comparable with the writings on specimens Q1 through Q44 or with the available known writings of suspects for a satisfactory examination. u

Specimens Q45 through Q49 and the ALSO SUBMITTED item are returned herewith. Photographs have been retained. u

ADMINISTRATIVE:

On June 24, 1972, Supervisor CHARLES NEZUM, Accounting and Fraud Section, FBI Headquarters, advised that Bureau authority was granted to interview KENNETH H. DAHLBERG in the presence of his attorney. u

The Bureau has instructed that this matter be given immediate and expeditious attention and that all leads be given by telephone followed by teletype. In the event the Bureau is telephonically contacted, this case is being handled by Section Chief BOWLES, Accounting and Fraud Section. u

Minneapolis file 161-572 captioned KENNETH H. DAHLBERG, Special Inquiry, was reviewed and all information contained therein was laudatory except as follows: u

ROBERT S. HASSELSTROM, Chief, Crystal, Minnesota, Police Department, furnished the following information: u

HASSELSTROM has been with Crystal Police Department since 1951 and acquainted with DAHLBERG since about that time. After review of his records, he recalled his arrest of DAHLBERG on the evening of August 14, 1953, when DAHLBERG was charged with careless driving and driving without license in possession. At that time he, HASSELSTROM, was a patrolman. According to HASSELSTROM, this arrest was following a serious automobile accident, Highway 100 and 34th Avenue North, Crystal, Minnesota, involving four teen-age boys who were occupants of small stationwagon which was struck from the rear by DAHLBERG. As a result, four teen-agers subsequently died. u

HASSELSTROM said several persons approached him at the scene of the accident stating DAHLBERG "was traveling at high rate of speed" and "driving in careless manner." HASSELSTROM recalls after observing DAHLBERG, he was convinced DAHLBERG was under influence of alcohol at the time of the accident. DAHLBERG agreed to blood tests to determine alcohol content; however, subsequently refused to participate in test for alcohol content. DAHLBERG issued ticket at the scene of the accident for careless driving and driving without license in possession. According to HASSELSTROM, there was considerable ill feeling in the area because of the circumstances surrounding the accident, and therefore, he and other police officers insisted Hennepin County prosecuting attorney charge DAHLBERG with criminal negligence in connection with the death of four young men and present the matter to the grand jury. Case presented to the grand jury, Hennepin County, and "no bill" returned. HASSELSTROM said he was never satisfied with the results in this matter because he, even though on the scene of the accident almost immediately, was not called as a witness. HASSELSTROM described investigation of this accident and resulting disposition as one of the most frustrating events of career, as accident the most serious he had observed to take place and he still feels DAHLBERG was at fault in causing the deaths of the four men for which he was never held accountable. HASSELSTROM reviewed records and determined DAHLBERG on September 11, 1953, appeared before the justice of the peace court, entered guilty plea to charges of careless driving and no driver's license in possession, for which fines were maximum $100 first charge and maximum $10 on the second charge. Fines were paid the same date. u

Detective BURTON C. HOLMES, Detective Division, Crystal, Minnesota, Police Department, advised he was both Justice of the Peace and a member of the Crystal, Minnesota, Fire Department, August 14, 1953, when the above-mentioned accident occurred in that city. He said he was one of the first witnesses on the scene and furnished substantially the same information as HASSELSTROM. He said he was listed as a witness for grand jury regarding accident; however, never called, and was told "We now have all the witnesses necessary." HOLMES said two individuals whom he cannot identify contacted him just prior to September 11, 1953, as representatives for Mr. DAHLBERG regarding the careless driving charge and driving without a license in his possession, which was scheduled for his court. He said they attempted to influence him to drop these charges; however, he refused to do so and suggested a change of venue. HOLMES said DAHLBERG subsequently pled guilty as reflected above. HOLMES concluded by stating he has felt very strongly about this case and although he felt helpless at the time, he personally felt DAHLBERG "took the lives of four fine young men because he was drinking and driving and will never have to answer to this act." u

Records of the Hennepin County, Minnesota, County Attorney's Office reflect Hennepin County Grand Jury returned on September 3, 1953, a "no bill" in regard to indictment of criminal negligence on August 14, 1953, in connection with the above-mentioned accident. u

Records, State Highway Department, St. Paul, Minnesota, as reviewed by LORETTA HOUSE, reflect no information located regarding KENNETH H. DAHLBERG. It is noted no accident records are maintained, State of Minnesota, over five years. u

Pertinent information in this report has previously been furnished to the Bureau by telephone followed by teletype. u

Efforts to trace telephone calls made by DAHLBERG to the Minneapolis Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation were negative. Efforts to determine Northwestern flight prior to receiving DAHLBERG's call from Washington, D. C. were negative. u

At 8:05 a.m., on June 23, 1972, an attempt was made to contact DAHLBERG at his residence. Mrs. DAHLBERG answered the telephone at which time she advised that her husband was showering and would return the call. A subsequent call to the DAHLBERG home was answered by the maid who advised that both Mr. and Mrs. DAHLBERG were out and she did not know when to expect Mr. DAHLBERG back. She said she expected Mrs. DAHLBERG to return sometime before noon. Attempts to locate Mr. DAHLBERG at his office were negative. u

RUTH LAMBERT, the private secretary for the DAHLBERG family, advised she did not expect Mr. DAHLBERG in the office until Monday, June 26, 1972. She said that Mr. DAHLBERG was to attend a wedding on the following Saturday in Buffalo, New York. She said she knew where Mr. DAHLBERG would be staying in Buffalo but suggested that she attempt to contact Mr. DAHLBERG prior to releasing this information. u

At approximately 2:33 p.m., June 22, 1972, EDWARD R. DAHLBERG telephonically contacted Special Agent FRANCIS R. GRADY advising that his plane had just landed in Washington, D. C. Mr. DAHLBERG was advised the reason he was being contacted was relative to a transaction he had with EDWARD L. PARKER. He advised that the name was unknown to him and if his name was used, it was used without his authority. It was explained to Mr. DAHLBERG that if such were the case, the matter could be cleared up very quickly and it was suggested that arrangements be made for him to be interviewed by Agents of the Washington Field Office. Mr. DAHLBERG stated that he would be back in Minneapolis the following Monday and suggested that he be contacted at that time. He was advised that because of the urgency of the matter, arrangements could readily be made for him to be interviewed with the least inconvenience to himself while he was still in Washington. Mr. DAHLBERG advised that he had an extremely tight schedule, that he had to attend a wedding dinner that evening and a wedding the following day in Buffalo, New York. He said, however, that he would check his flight schedule and call back. DAHLBERG subsequently returned the call stating that he could be contacted at his office on the following Monday morning. u

At approximately 8:00 a.m., June 26, 1972, Mr. DAHLBERG was telephonically contacted at his home for the purpose of setting up an interview. He advised that based upon advice of his attorney, he would not discuss the matter. When asked the identity of his attorney, he advised that it was a Washington, D. C. attorney and he did not feel that he could divulge his identity without first obtaining the attorney's authority. He said that he would contact his attorney in Washington, D. C., and would advise the Minneapolis Office if his attorney would allow his name to be divulged. u

Mr. DAHLBERG was recontacted and advised that his attorney did not desire to be identified. u

DONALD HENRY SEGRETTI, 14013 Captains Row, Apartment 117, was reinterviewed concerning the burglary of the National Democratic Headquarters in Washington, D. C., on June 17, 1972. He indicated he was aware of the official identities of Special Agents JOHN M. O'NEILL, JR. and RICHARD H. PASHLEY. He explained that he can not recall the way in which he had arranged to meet ED WARREN upon his arrival in Miami, Florida on his first trip to that city. He believes that WARREN may have furnished him with a telephone number to call upon arrival in Miami, and he may have then called WARREN and told him that he would be waiting by the pool on the day that WARREN drove up in a cab and met him by the pool at SEGRETTI's motel. u

He advised that he does not believe that the people who have furnished him with money to help support his activities concerning travel to Democratic primaries across the country were aware of his relationship with WARREN or his contacts with WARREN. u

MARGARET ELAINE JOHNSON, 1433 Rockglen, Apartment Number One, was advised of the official identities of Special Agents JOHN M. O'NEILL, JR. and RICHARD H. PASHLEY. Her mother, who was also present, was also shown the Agent's identification. Miss JOHNSON's mother was advised that due to the nature of the interview, it would be necessary for her daughter to be interviewed alone, and she left the apartment. U

Miss JOHNSON advised that she has been a stewardess for American Airlines for approximately four years. During a flight from Los Angeles to New York on September 2, 1971, on American Airlines Flight 39, a passenger who used the name ED J. HAMILTON, complained about his food, and generally caused her problems, until she was able to resolve the problems for him. This individual was traveling with another man who she described as younger than HAMILTON, using the name G. PARTNER, a white male, 5'9" to 5'11", 150 to 160 pounds, dark brown hair, and in his middle 40's. She believes that they had an attache case with them and reviewed some papers during the flight. She had a conversation with HAMILTON in the first class lounge with HAMILTON's companion present, and during this conversation HAMILTON talked about how he had been associated with, or lived with a group of Russians at one time. She believes that he had then contact with Russians in Alaska, Utah or possibly New Mexico. He expressed his opinion that these were very good people. She can not recall actually giving her name to HAMILTON, but believes that she must have, because she had lost her name tag and was without a name tag at about the time of this flight. She can not recall giving HAMILTON her business address at the airport, but she sometimes does give this address to businessmen who indicate they would like to send her a sample of a product. U

On either September 6 or 13, 1971, she had a lay over in New York, and upon checking her message box at the Park Sheraton Hotel, she found a book entitled, "The Latter-day Saints: Mormon's Yesterday and Today", by ROBERT MULLEN. Inside the front cover was a typewritten note on letterhead paper, bearing the letterhead, "Robert R. Mullen and Co., 1700 Pennsylvania Ave., N. W. Washington, D. C. 20005 (202) 293-2900". The note typed on the paper reads "Dear Margaret: I've been trying to reach you at the Sheraton in NYC, with no luck. After that fantastic flight from LAX to JFK on September 4th, I wanted to follow up. Next time you're in New York call me COLLECT at (202) 347-0355. Please". The note is signed "Ed Hamilton". cl

After reading the note, she could not recall the identity of ED HAMILTON who had signed the note or where she had met him. She called the number he had left at the bottom of the note, and spoke with a female she believed was his secretary. She asked for ED HAMILTON and was advised that he was not in. She identified herself, and the secretary indicated that she had heard of her, and she somehow indicated that she had been expecting Miss JOHNSON's call. She recalls that the female who had answered the telephone had been very nice. Miss JOHNSON told her to tell Mr. HAMILTON that she had received the book and to thank him. From the way in which the telephone was answered, she got the impression that the call was received at the White House, but she is not sure of this. Following the call, she still could not recall the identity of ED HAMILTON. cl

A few days later, she received a long note from ED HAMILTON, indicating that he would like to spend some time with her if she were going to have a long layover in New York. He indicated that they could take a trip for a few days to Connecticut. He indicated that if she could tell him when she would be in New York he could arrange to meet her. He also indicated that he would like to see her if she were ever in Washington, D. C. From the content of the note, she understood that he desired to enter into a romantic relationship with her. The note ended with the statement, "Now the ball is in your court". She never responded to this note. cl

LA 139 306

About two months later, she received two "good passenger" letters which had been sent to the airline and routed to her. From the content of these letters, she was able to recall the identity of ED HAMILTON as a passenger on Flight 32 from Los Angeles to New York. One of these letters was signed "Ed J. Hamilton", and the other was signed "G. Larimer".

She furnished the following description of ED J. HAMILTON:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Height	5'10"
Frame	Medium to light
Age	45 to 60 years
Hair	Grey, salt and pepper, with receding hairline
Complexion	Medium
Dress	Very conservative
Miscellaneous	Bad posture, possibly smoked because seated in smoking section of first class

MORTON BARNHORS JACKSON, 9300 Beverly Crest Drive, was interviewed at his law office, 1901 Avenue of the Stars. He was advised of the official identities of Special Agents JOHN M. O'NEILL, JR., RICHARD H. PASHLEY, JOHNNIE L. JOYCE, and RONALD D. ANDERSON. He was advised that four Agents were present because it had been anticipated that two separate interviews would be conducted simultaneously and separately with himself and his secretary, ESTHER KIRBY. He was advised that he was being interviewed in connection with an investigation into the burglary of the National Democratic Headquarters in Washington, D. C., which had taken place on June 17, 1972. He advised that he would want to be present during any interview of his secretary in view of the fact that she is his employee. u

He was asked if he knew an individual by the name of EVERETT HOWARD HUNT. He advised that he knows HUNT, and referred to him as "HOWIE". He has known HUNT for about 30 years. They met when they were both at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland in 1941. He explained that he and HUNT went through a 90-day program and received their commissions and went on active duty. He advised that although he attended Annapolis, he has never considered himself a graduate of a trade school. He has maintained his contact with HUNT on a social basis. When he visits Washington, D. C., he usually sees HUNT, and when HUNT is in Los Angeles, he visits Mr. JACKSON. Since HUNT left "the Agency", referring to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), he has contacted Mr. JACKSON on several occasions soliciting his opinion and calling upon Mr. JACKSON's legal training regarding clients of Mr. HUNT, who HUNT has had contact with as a result of his employment with Robert Mullen Company, his employer. Mr. JACKSON indicated that HUNT was essentially using their old friendship to obtain "free" legal advice, which he noted is a common problem for lawyers engaged in private practice. He understands that Robert Mullen Company is engaged in public relations work and HUNT is a public relations man for the company. He recalled that on one occasion, HUNT wanted his advice regarding the technical aspects of the financing of a construction job in Central America involving one of HUNT's clients. u

Several months ago, HUNT was in Los Angeles and he introduced Mr. JACKSON to GORDON LIDDY who was accompanying HUNT. He believes that LIDDY is an attorney employed by the Finance Committee to Re Elect the President. He does not know whether HUNT and LIDDY were in Los Angeles at the time of this meeting, but presumes that they were not in Los Angeles for social purposes. His meeting with HUNT and LIDDY was social in nature and not related to business or involving an attorney client relationship at that time. He was unable to recall the approximate date of this meeting. u

Since June 17, 1972, he has been contacted by HUNT who has asked that Mr. JACKSON act as his attorney. Mr. JACKSON indicated that HUNT requires his professional services due to the burglary of the National Democratic Headquarters, advising that it has been in that context that Mr. HUNT has contacted him since June 17, 1972. As a result of HUNT's desire to have Mr. JACKSON act as his attorney, Mr. JACKSON advised that he could not discuss the content of his conversations with HUNT. u

He advised that until June 17, 1972, he had never acted in a professional capacity for HUNT, nor had he had any business dealings with HUNT. u

He was advised that the telephone toll records of HUNT's business telephone actually had been obtained by subpoena and it was noted that the home telephone number of the mother of Mr. JACKSON's secretary, Mrs. ESTHER KIRBY, had been called from HUNT's business telephone. Mr. JACKSON explained that when he is out of town, people attempting to contact him are very often directed to his secretary, Mrs. KIRBY, and some of his regular clients may even have her home telephone number. He explained that Mrs. KIRBY's mother had been ill and Mrs. KIRBY had stayed with her for several days and it was, therefore, likely that that was the reason for the call from HUNT's business telephone to Mrs. KIRBY's mother's home telephone number. u

Mr. JACKSON again clarified his reason for desiring to be present during any interview of Mrs. KIRBY, explaining that since he was invoking the attorney client privilege, he wanted to insure that Mrs. KIRBY not violate this privilege as an employee of the firm. He advised that he would be acting as Mrs. KIRBY's attorney in any interview of Mrs. KIRBY. u

Mr. JACKSON has confined his own political activity in recent years to working for the election of ROBERT FINCH in his campaign for office in the State of California. He has not contributed funds toward the re election of President RICHARD M. NIXON. He purposely avoids allowing his name to appear on letterheads of fund raising groups because he does not feel that it would be helpful in relation to his radio program which is aired Sunday nights on Los Angeles radio station, KMPC. u

He advised that he is not personally connected in any way with the burglary of the National Democratic Headquarters in Washington, D. C., and he had no knowledge of the burglary until the fact of the burglary was disclosed by the news media. u

Mr. BERNARD DENBURG, 10534 Holman, was contacted at his place of business, Concept Plus, 12509 Beatrice Street, Los Angeles. He was advised of the official identities of Special Agents RICHARD H. PASHLEY and VANCE A. DUFFY. He was advised that he was being interviewed in connection with an investigation into the burglary of the National Democratic Headquarters in Washington, D. C., which had occurred on June 17, 1972. He advised that he had no knowledge of the burglary, other than what he had learned from the news media. u

He is not acquainted with anyone by the name of EVERETT HOWARD HUNT, ED WARREN, ED HAMILTON or GORDON LIDDY. ea

He was shown photographs of the individuals arrested in connection with the burglary, together with photographs of EVERETT HOWARD HUNT and GORDON LIDDY, but was unable to identify any of the photographs as people with whom he was acquainted. He was asked whether he was acquainted with MORTON JACKSON and he advised that he had only met Mr. JACKSON and several other members of the Jackson law firm because his wife had been employed by the firm until about March of 1972. He has met some of the attorneys in that firm at parties, but has not otherwise had contact with them. u

He was advised that the telephone toll records of the business telephone of EVERETT HOWARD HUNT had been subpoenaed and one call had been made on March 20, 1972 to telephone number 573 4570, which was listed to him at his previous address in Inglewood, California. He explained that during the time that that call was made to his former residence, MARY was living with him. He and his wife, MARY NENTA WIGGINS HARRELL DENBURG, have been married since April of 1972. Prior to that time, they had gone through periods when they were considering marriage and other periods when they would not see each other at all. During one of

MARY DUNBURG, nee Mary Wiggins, also known as Mary Harrell, 1034 Holman, Apartment Three, was advised of the official identities of Special Agents JOHN M. O'NEILL, JR. and RICHARD H. PASHLEY. She was advised that she was being interviewed in connection with an investigation into the burglary of the National Democratic Headquarters in Washington, D. C., which took place on June 17, 1972. CONFIDENTIAL u

She was asked whether she was acquainted with EVERETT HOWARD HUNT and GORDON LIDDY. She advised that she was, and that she knew the men by those names, although some people called HUNT, "HOWIE". u

She first met HUNT on September 3, 1971, when he was visiting MORTON JACKSON at Mr. JACKSON's law offices where she was employed as receptionist. She does not actually recall the meeting, but has since been told that it was on that date by Mr. HUNT. Mr. LIDDY was with Mr. HUNT on this occasion. u

Her next contact with him occurred when he was in Los Angeles in January 1972. Mr. JACKSON arranged for Mr. HUNT to take her to dinner. On January 9, 1972, they had dinner at a French restaurant called Chasen's, in Beverly Hills. The following evening, she and HUNT had dinner with GORDON LIDDY, and SHERRY STEPHENS, a friend of hers who she asked to accompany Mr. LIDDY. SHERRY resides at 5425 Blackburn, Apartment Number One, Los Angeles. During dinner, LIDDY and Miss STEPHENS were discussing how strong the human mind is, and what it is capable of doing. To demonstrate the power of his mind, LIDDY had SHERRY hold a lighted match under the palm of his hand. He held his hand over the match until his hand was badly burned. He showed his burned palm to her and to SHERRY, then wrapped it in a cloth napkin. During this exercise, LIDDY did not show any sign of pain. Based on his conduct generally, she considered him "quite intense and a little weird". She recalls that LIDDY had been or was going to go to San Diego CONFIDENTIAL at HUNT's direction to check out the facilities for the Republican Convention which was planned to be held in San Diego.

She recalls that this visit to Los Angeles had something to do with business with Hughes Tool Company and with TONY JACKSON, the name commonly used by MORTON JACKSON. HUNT indicated that he had to go out to the Hughes Tool Company regarding the trouble with CLIFFORD IRVING. During this visit, HUNT and LIDDY stayed in a suite at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, Los Angeles. HUNT told her that he was a Republican, working with and for the President. He said that his trip to California was regarding the Republican Convention scheduled to be held in San Diego. u

Some time prior to February 4, 1972, she received a telephone call from HUNT in which he told her that he was planning to be in Los Angeles on February 4, 1972. She told him that she would not be able to see him at that time. On February 4, 1972, she called him and told him that she was engaged to BERNARD DENBURG. He accepted this news well and gave her his best wishes. On February 18, 1972, he and LIDDY were again in Los Angeles. LIDDY came by the law office and brought her a bottle of champagne, which he was delivering for HUNT. On February 21, 1972, HUNT came by her apartment in Inglewood, and they had a short visit and drank the bottle of champagne. u

After BERNARD DENBURG had asked her to marry him, she requested that she be given three weeks off from work following her wedding. She believed that this was a reasonable request since she had been with the firm for two and one half years. She was told that she could not have three weeks off, and she then indicated that she would have to quit. After thinking over what she had said over the weekend, she advised the firm that she would like to remain with the firm. She was told that her services were no longer needed, and she knows that this decision was made by Mr. JACKSON since he made such decisions. She was somewhat surprised that HUNT did not attempt to persuade JACKSON to retain her. She left the firm on February 18, 1972. u

Following her announcement to HUNT of her engagement, and after she had left the firm, she and HUNT did talk several times on the telephone, but did not meet again. Prior to the wedding, she borrowed $200 from HUNT to pay bills she owed, and has not repaid this money to date. Several of HUNT's calls to her during this time were from Florida. u

Beyond acting as Mr. JACKSON's secretary, Mrs. KIRBY has stayed at the JACKSON home in Beverly Hills on two occasions when the JACKSON's have been traveling. She did this about two years ago at Mr. JACKSON's request, and on that occasion, her husband stayed at the JACKSON home with her. Recently, while Mr. and Mrs. JACKSON and Mrs. JACKSON's daughter were traveling, Mrs. KIRBY again stayed at the home at his request, but her husband did not stay with her this time. Mrs. KIRBY has never explained why Mr. JACKSON has her do this, but has indicated that she can not refuse to do this for him. B/C

Mr. JACKSON and Mrs. JACKSON, who have been married eight to ten years, were introduced to each other by HUNT or a friend of HUNT's when Mr. JACKSON was in Venezuela. She was previously married to a man named DEHARRARA (phonetic), who is deceased, and was also married to a man named COOK who was a wealthy sugar man in Hawaii. Their present housekeeper was brought to the United States by Mrs. JACKSON from Venezuela. Mrs. JACKSON, whose name is NANCY, speaks fluent Spanish, and the housekeeper speaks little or no English. B/C

She describes him as the most conservative man she has ever known. He practices Yoga, maintains a strict diet, usually eating lunch in his office. He is an extreme perfectionist, and imposes many rules and restrictions on everyone connected with his office. He rarely smiles, and seems to lack common human qualities. JACKSON makes calls all over the world. Beginning in January, he was in telephonic contact with HUNT several times a week, and sometimes several times a day. This FBI

she knows because one of her jobs was to note the party called, and the client to be billed for each call. He billed his calls to HUNT to SUSQUEHANNA versus a name she cannot recall, and sometimes to himself. He had additional telephonic contact with HUNT on his private unlisted telephone according to ESTHER. During some of his conversations with HUNT, he would have ESTHER leave the room. ESTHER has indicated that Mr. JACKSON and HUNT are engaged in some kind of government work. ESTHER once told her to forget that she had ever heard the name SUSQUEHANNA, because it was a code used by JACKSON and HUNT. ESTHER told her to never mention SUSQUEHANNA, especially to Mr. HODGES, the head of the law firm down the hall from the JACKSON firm, who used to be Mr. JACKSON's partner, because he had had something to do with SUSQUEHANNA. Mr. JACKSON would call HUNT at 202-293-2746, and two other numbers, one of which she believes may have been the White House. Mr. JACKSON has always been very secretive about his contacts with HUNT, and his many calls around the world. 4

Mrs. JACKSON travels around the world a great deal, often to India to meditate with a religious leader. 4

SHERRY STEPHENS, 8425 Blackburn, Los Angeles, was interviewed at a park near her place of employment, 118 S. Beverly Dr. She was advised of the official identities of Special Agents JOHN M. O'NEILL, JR., and RICHARD H. PASHLEY, and that she was being interviewed in connection with an investigation into the burglary of the National Democratic Headquarters, Washington, D. C., which occurred on June 17, 1972. u

She advised that she met HOWARD HUNT and GORDON LIDDY through MARY DEMBORG, who she has known for several years. At the time MARY was not married, and explained that one of the attorneys in the law firm where she was working had introduced her to HUNT, and she asked SHERRY to go to dinner with them and a friend of HUNT's, LIDDY. During dinner at a French restaurant in Beverly Hills, she determined from talking with GORDON LIDDY, that he was married. He explained to her that his wife was an alcoholic and abused him. She and GORDON got into a discussion about the strength of the human mind, and he told her that he could demonstrate the strength of his mind. He had her light a match and hold it under the palm of one of his hand. She did so, and held the match until it was almost burning her fingers. She saw the palm of his hand after this demonstration, and it was very seriously burned. She also smelled burning flesh during the demonstration, and noted that GORDON did not show any sign of pain. u

LIDDY told her that he was a "defense or criminal attorney", and that he lived outside of Washington, D. C. He said that he had advised the President, and had recently been in San Diego trying to find space for the Secret Service Agents for the protection of President NIXON during the Republican Convention scheduled for San Diego. He never explained exactly what his job entailed. u

He said that he was born in Germany, and remembered the war, but he did not speak with any accent. He wrote something in German on her checkbook later in the evening, when she told him that she hoped to travel to Europe. He told her that he had traveled to Europe in the recent past. Her first and lasting impression of LIDDY was that he would have made a good Nazi. She considered him to be very intense, and very strange. u

Sometime between this meeting with LIDDY in January 1972 and mid March 1972, she received a call from LIDDY who told her that he and HUNT were back in Los Angeles again, staying at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel. His call was "like on Thursday", asking her to have lunch with him sometime while he was in town, and on Saturday morning she called him at the hotel and told him she could not make it to lunch, giving the excuse that she had been involved in an accident. She had not been involved in an accident, but was involved in one shortly after that. During this time, MARY DENBURG was encouraging her to go out with LIDDY, and MARY indicated that another woman was asking her to ask SHERRY to go out with LIDDY. The reason behind this was never clear to SHERRY. u
